Mimi the Laughter Fairy

Mr. Twinkle's Tumble

Kirsty Tate was spinning her way across the park, her arms outstretched as she soaked up the early morning sunshine. It was making the dew sparkle on each blade of grass, and it was shining on the golden hair of Kirsty's best friend, Rachel Walker.

“I wonder what Jen and Ginny have planned for us today,” said Rachel, skipping along beside Kirsty.

It was their third day on Rainspell Island, the beautiful place where they had first met—and where they’d had their first fairy adventure! They were attending the Summer Friends Camp, a day camp for children staying on the island on vacation. The camp was held in the park every morning.

“We’ve already played soccer, had a water-balloon fight, and painted a mural,” Kirsty remembered. “I’m so glad we’ve been going to camp.”

They reached the tent where the camp was based and stepped inside. Oscar and Lara, two of their newest friends, dashed over to them.

“Good morning!” said Lara, a big smile on her face.

“Do you know what we’re doing today?” Oscar asked.

“We have no idea,” said Rachel with a grin. “But I think we’re about to find out!”

Jen and Ginny, the teenage best friends who ran the camp, were beckoning everyone to gather around them. They looked as if they were about to burst with excitement.
