Dog Man #8
By Dav Pilkey

Petey the Cat is out of jail, and he has a brand-new lease on life. While Petey’s reevaluated what matters most, Li’l Petey is struggling to find the good in the world. Can Petey and Dog Man stop fighting like cats and dogs long enough to put their paws together and work as a team? They need each other now more than ever -- Li’l Petey (and the world) is counting on them!

Dav Pilkey’s wildly popular Dog Man series appeals to readers of all ages and explores universally positive themes, including empathy, kindness, persistence, and the importance of being true to one’s self.

Dog Man: Guide to Creating Comics in 3-D

By Kate Howard
Illustrated by Dav Pilkey

George and Harold know a LOT about making comic books. (Remember their Captain Underpants comics?) But before they told you that story, first they told you the story of Dog Man - part dog, part man, and all cop!

Want to know how George and Harold come up with hilarious heroes like Dog Man and Li’l Petey and Chief? And how do they think up such wretched villains, like Petey and Piggy and Philly? Now’s your chance to find out! The boys will give step-by-step instructions on how to draw some of their best Dog Man characters. Plus, get advice on how to create your own funny comic-book characters — and bring them to life in 3-D!

This book is packed with 3-D glasses; a write-on, wipe-off pen; a drawing pad; and over 30 stickers from the New York Times bestselling series!

Praise for Captain Underpants

The critics are CRAZY about UNDERPANTS!

“Irresistible.” — Entertainment Weekly

“So appealing that youngsters won’t notice that their vocabulary is stretching.” — School Library Journal

“Pilkey’s sharp humor shines, and is as much fun for parents as their young readers.” — Parents’ Choice Foundation

“Combines empowerment and empathy with age-appropriate humor and action.” — Booklist
George and Harold’s time-traveling Purple Potty has landed them in a crazy place! The teachers are nice, the cafeteria serves delicious food, and the school principal, Mr. Krupp, thinks they’re hilarious. Something is very, very wrong — and it gets even wronger when the boys’ pet pterodactyl, Crackers, and Sulu the Bionic Hamster are captured by George and Harold’s evil-twin look-alikes. Now George and Harold must face their greatest foes yet: THEMSELVES! Can they handle this mess on their own, or will they need Captain Underpants to swoop in and save the day?

George and Harold are behind bars for a crime they didn’t commit! But just as they are settling into their new life, they are pulled from prison by a time-traveling tyrant named Tippy Tinkletrousers! Now the boys are taking a trip back in time to the carefree days of kindergarten, when the scariest thing they had to face was not evil mad scientists or alien cafeteria ladies but a sixth-grade bully named Kipper Krupp, the nephew of their clueless school principal. And because George and Harold don’t invent Captain Underpants until they’re in fourth grade, the clever kindergartners are on their own. Can they beat the bullies with brainpower instead of Wedgie Power?

Smile, Sisters, and Guts: The Box Set
By Raina Telgemeier

A collection of Raina Telgemeier’s #1 New York Times bestselling graphic novels about family, friendship, and the highs and lows of growing up!

Smile
The true story of how Raina severely injured her two front teeth when she was in the sixth grade, and the dental drama that followed!

Sisters
Raina can’t wait to be a big sister. Amara is cute, but she’s also cranky and mostly prefers to play by herself. Their relationship doesn’t improve much over the years...can they figure out how to get along?

Guts
Raina has tummy trouble, and it seems to coincide with her worries about food, school, family, and changing friendships. A thoughtful, charming, and funny true story about growing up and gathering the courage to face — and eventually conquer — fear.

Raina’s most poignant and personal story yet!

Guts
By Raina Telgemeier

Raina wakes up one night with a terrible upset stomach. Her mom has one, too, so it’s probably just a bug. Raina eventually returns to school, where she’s dealing with the usual highs and lows: friends, not-friends, and classmates who think the school year is just one long gross-out session. It soon becomes clear that Raina’s tummy trouble isn’t going away... and it coincides with her worries about food, school, and changing friendships. What’s going on?

Raina Telgemeier once again brings us a thoughtful, charming, and funny true story about growing up and gathering the courage to face — and conquer — her fears.

The Baby-Sitters Club Graphix #7: Boy-Crazy Stacey: A Graphix Book

By Ann M. Martin
Illustrated by Gale Galligan

Stacey and Mary Anne are baby-sitting for the Pike family for two weeks at the New Jersey shore. Things are great in Sea City: There’s a gorgeous house right on the beach, a boardwalk, plenty of sun and sand... and the cutest boy Stacey has ever seen!

Mary Anne thinks that Stacey should leave Scott alone and focus on the Pike kids, but Stacey’s in love. Looking for reasons to hang around his lifeguard stand takes up all of her time, which means Mary Anne has to do the job of two baby-sitters. Mary Anne doesn’t like it one bit! How can she tell Stacey that Scott just isn’t interested without ruining their friendship and breaking Stacey’s heart?

Praise for Gale Galligan:

Sunny Rolls the Dice
By Jennifer L. Holm
Illustrated by Matthew Holm
Too cool for school . . . or the least groovy girl in the grade?
Sunny’s just made it to middle school . . . and it’s making her life very confusing. All her best friend Deb wants to talk about is fashion, boys, makeup, boys, and being cool. Sunny’s not against any of these things, but she also doesn’t understand why suddenly everything revolves around them. She’s much more comfortable when she’s in her basement, playing Dungeons & Dragons with a bunch of new friends. Because when you’re swordfighting and spider-slaying, it’s hard to worry about whether you look cool or not. Especially when it’s your turn to roll the 20-sided die.
Trying hard to be cool can make you feel really uncool . . . and it’s much more fun to just have fun. Sunny’s going to find her groove and her own kind of groovy, with plenty of laughs along the way.

Praise for Sunny Side Up:
“Heartbreaking and hopeful, Sunny Side Up is just the thing to chase away the clouds.”

Wings of Fire Graphic Novel #3: The Hidden Kingdom
By Tui T. Sutherland
Illustrated by Mike Holmes
Glory knows that the dragon world is wrong about her being “a lazy RainWing.” Maybe she wasn’t meant to be one of the dragonets of destiny, but Glory is sharp and her venom is deadly—even if that’s still a secret.

So when the dragonets seek shelter in the rain forest, Glory is devastated to find that the treetops are full of RainWings that nap all day and know nothing of the rest of Pyrrhia. Worst of all, they don’t realize—or care—that RainWings are going missing from their beautiful forest. But Glory and the dragonets are determined to find the missing dragons, even if it drags the peaceful RainWing kingdom where they never wanted to be—into the middle of the war.

a mesmerizing story of dreams

Excerpt from The Dreamer Trilogy, Book 1: Call Down the Hawk:

PROLOGUE
This is going to be a story about the Lynch brothers.

There were three of them, and if you didn’t like one, try another, because the Lynch brother others found too sour or too sweet might be just to your taste. The Lynch brothers, the orphans Lynch. All of them had been made by dreams, one way or another. They were all handsome devils, down to the last one.

They looked after themselves. Their mother Aurora had died the way some dreams did, gruesomely, blamelessly, unexpectedly. Their father Niall had been killed or murdered, depending on how human you considered him. Were there other Lynches? It seemed unlikely. Lynches seemed to be very good at dying.

Dreams are not the safest thing to build a life on.

Because the Lynch brothers had been in danger for so much of their lives, they’d each developed methods of mitigating threats. Declan, the eldest, courted safety by being as dull as possible. He was very good at it. In all things—school, extracurriculars, dating—he invariably chose the dullest option. He had a real gift for it; some forms of boring suggest that the wearer, deep down inside, might actually be a person of whimsy and nuance, but Declan made certain to practice a form of boring that suggested that, deep down inside, there was an even more boring version of him. Declan was not invisible, because invisible had its own charm, its own mystery. He was simply dull. Technically he was a college student, a political intern, a twenty-one year old with his whole life ahead of him, but it was hard to remember that. It was hard to remember him at all.

The Dreamer Trilogy, Book 1: Call Down the Hawk

By Maggie Stiefvater

The dreamers walk among us . . . and so do the dreamed. Those who dream cannot stop dreaming – they can only try to control it. Those who are dreamed cannot have their own lives – they will sleep forever if their dreamers die.

And then there are those who are drawn to the dreamers. To use them. To trap them. To kill them before their dreams destroy us all.

Ronan Lynch is a dreamer. He can pull both curiosities and catastrophes out of his dreams and into his compromised reality.

Jordan Hennessy is a thief. The closer she comes to the dream object she is after, the more inextricably she becomes tied to it.

Carmen Farroq-Lane is a hunter. Her brother was a dreamer . . . and a killer. She has seen what dreaming can do to a person. And she has seen the damage that dreamers can do. But that is nothing compared to the destruction that is about to be unleashed. . . .

Impostors
By Scott Westerfeld
Frey and Rafi are inseparable . . . two edges of the same knife. But Frey’s very existence is a secret.
Frey is Rafi’s twin sister—and her body double. Their powerful father has many enemies, and the world has grown dangerous as the old order falls apart. So while Rafi was raised to be the perfect daughter, Frey has been taught to kill. Her only purpose is to protect her sister, to sacrifice herself for Rafi if she must.

When her father sends Frey in Rafi’s place as collateral in a precarious deal, she becomes the perfect impostor—as poised and charming as her sister. But Col, the son of a rival leader, is getting close enough to spot the killer inside her. As the deal starts to crumble, Frey must decide if she can trust him with the truth . . . and if she can risk becoming her own person.

With Impostors, master storyteller Scott Westerfeld returns with a new series set in the world of his mega-bestselling Uglies.

Mr. Wolf’s Class #3: Lucky Stars
By Aron Nels Steinke

Mr. Wolf’s students are having a “writer’s workshop” and are learning about personal narratives. Sampson doesn’t think anything worth writing has ever happened to him. He’d rather think about space pirates and zombies, anyway. But when Sampson and Margot go for a bike ride one morning, he has an accident that gives him a new perspective, and he thanks his lucky stars that he’s going to be okay.

Meanwhile, Penny gives the rats at school treats so that they’ll leave surprise gifts for her, and Stewart and Oliver try to learn how to get along at recess.

The Midwinter Witch
By Molly Knox Ostertag

Magic has a dark side . . .

Aster always looks forward to the Midwinter Festival, a reunion of the entire Vanissen family that includes competitions in witchery and shapeshifting. This year, he’s especially excited to compete in the annual Jolrun tournament as a witch. He’s determined to show everyone that he’s proud of who he is and what he’s learned, but he knows it won’t be easy to defy tradition.

Ariel has darker things on her mind than the Festival—like the mysterious witch who’s been visiting her dreams, claiming to know the truth about Ariel’s past. She appreciates everything the Vanissens have done for her. But Ariel still craves a place where she truly belongs.

The Festival is a whirlwind of excitement and activity, but for Aster and Ariel, nothing goes according to plan. When a powerful and sinister force invades the reunion, threatening to destroy everything the young witches have fought for, can they find the courage to fight it together? Or will dark magic tear them apart?

astronaut caught in a space time loop!

The Seventh Voyage
By Stanislaw Lem
Illustrated by Jon J Muth

When Ijon Tichy, a solo astronaut, discovers his spaceship has collided with a bean-sized flying meteoroid, he tries in vain to fix the damage. His drive regulator and part of his rudder are shattered. Without them, the ship’s velocity steadily increases. And he is unable to fix it alone.

Then, something odd begins to happen.
In the middle of the night, he is awakened by a man who looks strangely familiar. And he should. For he’s seeing tomorrow’s version of himself! The ship continues to hurl Ijon faster and faster toward the Galactic Pole — which can cause the duplication, even the triplication of the present. Soon scores of Ijons from past and future multiply and crowd into the small vessel, bickering and fighting amongst themselves (himselves?), unable to agree on how to fix the rudder!

It is not until two child versions of Ijon join forces to fix the ship that order is restored — and he is back on course!

Geronimo Stilton #12: Merry Christmas, Geronimo!
By Geronimo Stilton

I was so excited about Christmas, I could squeak! My favorite nephew Benjamin was going to come over, and we were planning to trim the tree and eat lots of delicious holiday Cheesy Chews. But before you could say “cat alert,” disaster struck! I slipped over my tail and ended up in the hospital. And then my mouse hole caught on fire!

Holey cheese, this was turning out to be the worst Christmas ever....

Project Z #2: Zombies are People, Too
By Tommy Greenwald
The zombie secret is out!
Sort of... Scientists at the lab that Arnold escaped from claim they’ve changed their tune. Instead of creating super zombie soldiers, they just want humans and zombies to be friends.

Too good to be true? Probably. But Arnold agrees to help teach other zombies everything he’s learned so far about being a real human boy.

But there’s something that seems strange about these new “zombies” (well, stranger than usual). Arnold knows it’s up to him to unearth the secret before it eats him up inside. And outside. And everywhere else.

Discover the story of the Molasses Flood in the next book in the New York Times bestselling I Survived series!

I Survived #19:
I Survived the Great Molasses Flood, 1919

By Lauren Tarshis

There were warning signs that the molasses tank would break. The steel sides moaned and groaned. Molasses oozed from its seams. But the people of Boston’s North End — mostly poor immigrants — were powerless to complain to the big molasses company.

On a bright January day in 1919, the tank finally broke and almost three million gallons of molasses rushed the neighborhood. At 15 feet tall, 160 feet wide, and traveling at 35 miles per hour, the gooey wave was more destructive than any flood of water would have been. Lauren Tarshis tells the riveting story of one child who was swept up in the sticky storm and lived to tell the tale.

The Littles and the Trash Tinies

By John Peterson and Roberta Carter Clark

Illustrated by Roberta Carter Clark

Tom, Lucy, and Mr. Little must get to Trash City to deliver a message to their friends, the Trash Tinies. But there is a terrible storm! Will the Littles get to the city below the garbage dump? And what will they find when they get there?

The Littles Go Exploring

By John Peterson and Roberta Carter Clark

Illustrated by Roberta Carter Clark

Grandpa Little disappeared many years ago. Everyone says he is probably dead... except Granny Little. But when Tom and Lucy, the littlest Littles of all, find a secret room filled with papers belonging to Grandpa Little, they think that maybe he’s alive after all. If the Littles read his diary and study his maps, can they find Grandpa Little or will he be lost forever?
Join the Littles on their adventures — new look!

The Littles Take a Trip
By John Peterson and Roberta Carter Clark
Illustrated by Roberta Carter Clark

The Littles don’t visit the other tiny people of the Big Valley often. It’s too dangerous to leave their homes. There are mean weasels and rushing rivers! But when Cousin Dinky arrives with news from all over the valley, the Littles decide that it’s finally time to go visit their friends. It’s a historic event that kicks off the First Annual Meeting of the Tiny People of the Big Valley!

John Peterson wrote many books for young readers. The Littles has been a perennial favourite among elementary-school children, and the stories have been the inspiration for a morning cartoon show as well as two animated feature films.
The ratings are real. One number, 0 to 100, determines your place in society.

Rated
By Melissa Grey

Societies thrive on order, and the Rating System is the ultimate symbol of organized social mobility. The higher it soars, the more valued you are. The lower it plummets, the harder you must work to improve yourself. For the students at the prestigious Maplethorpe Academy, every single thing they do is reflected in their ratings, updated daily and available for all to see.

But when an act of vandalism sullies the front doors of the school, it sets off a chain reaction that will shake the lives of six special students — and the world beyond.

A sweeping, spooky, evocative middle-grade adventure, from bestselling author Victoria Schwab!

City of Ghosts
By Victoria Schwab

Ever since Cass almost drowned (okay, she did drown, but she doesn’t like to think about it), she can pull back the Veil that separates the living from the dead . . . and enter the world of spirits. Her best friend is even a ghost.

So things are already pretty strange. But they’re about to get much stranger.

When Cass’s parents start hosting a TV show about the world’s most haunted places, the family heads off to Edinburgh, Scotland. Here, graveyards, castles, and secret passageways teem with restless phantoms. And when Cass meets a girl who shares her “gift,” she realizes how much she still has to learn about the Veil — and herself.

And she’ll have to learn fast. The city of ghosts is more dangerous than she ever imagined.

Praise for City of Ghosts:

“Spine tingling and page-turning, perfectly blending humor, heart, and adventure . . . I loved it!” — Jennifer A. Nielsen, New York Times bestselling author of The False Prince

★★ This atmospheric ghost story from Schwab (the Monsters of Verity duology) chills and charms while challenging readers to face their fears.” — Publishers Weekly, starred review

“Begs to be read in the dark of night.” — Kirkus Reviews
Tunnel of Bones
By Victoria Schwab

Trouble is haunting Cassidy Blake . . . even more than usual.

She (plus her ghost best friend, Jacob, of course) are in Paris, where Cass’s parents are filming their TV show about the world’s most haunted cities. Sure, it’s fun eating croissants and seeing the Eiffel Tower, but there’s true ghostly danger lurking beneath Paris, in the creepy underground Catacombs.

When Cass accidentally awakens a frighteningly strong spirit, she must rely on her still-growing skills as a ghosthunter — and turn to friends both old and new to help her unravel a mystery. But time is running out, and the spirit is only growing stronger.

And if Cass fails, the force she’s unleashed could haunt the city forever.

#1 New York Times bestselling author Victoria Schwab returns to the spooky and heart-pounding world of City of Ghosts, delivering thrilling new adventures and an unforgettable spin on friendship. (Because sometimes, even psychic ghost best friends have secrets.)
Will the survivors make it home? And will they still be the same kids if they do?

Horizon #5
Liferaft
By Aditi Khorana

They’ve been looming in the distance the whole time, watching silently as the young survivors of the crash-landed Aero Horizon Flight 16 crossed a gauntlet of dangerous, unnatural landscapes.

After weeks of terror and heartbreak, Molly and her friends have reached the eerie structure they spotted at the start of their journey, all in a desperate bid that it will provide answers to their ordeal... and perhaps a way home.

Here, the survivors will finally learn the truth behind the rift.

And here they’ll encounter a monster far deadlier than anything they’ve faced yet.

Newbery Honor author Rodman Philbrick sends readers straight into the nightmare of a raging wildfire!

Wildfire

By Rodman Philbrick

Flames race toward Sam Castine’s summer camp as evacuation buses are loading, but Sam runs back to get his phone. Suddenly, a flash of heat blasts him as pine trees explode. Now a wall of fire separates Sam from his bus, and there’s only one thing to do: Run for his life. Run or die.

Lungs burning, Sam’s only goal is to keep moving. Drought has made the forest a tinderbox, and Sam struggles to remember survival tricks he learned from his late father. Then, when he least expects it, he encounters Delphy, an older girl who is also lost. Their unlikely friendship grows as they join forces to find civilization. Along the way, they cross paths with arsonists who are torching property built by outsiders. “If you’re from away, stay away!” they scream—and turn their rage on Sam and Delphy.

The pace never slows, and eventually flames surround Sam and Delphy on all sides. A powerful bond is forged that can only grow out of true hardship—as two true friends beat all odds and outwit one of the deadliest fires ever.

The final book in Deborah Wiles’ The Sixties Trilogy — full of photos, music, and figures of the time!

The Sixties Trilogy #3: Anthem
By Deborah Wiles

It’s 1969.

Molly is a girl who’s not sure she can feel anything anymore, because life sometimes hurts way too much. Her brother Barry ran away after having a fight with their father over the war in Vietnam. Now Barry’s been drafted into that war - and Molly’s mother tells her she has to travel across the country in an old schoolbus to find Barry and bring him home.

Norman is Molly’s slightly older cousin, who drives the old schoolbus. Molly and Norman get on the bus - and end up seeing a lot more of America that they’d ever imagined. From protests and parades to roaring races and rock n’ roll, the cousins make their way to Barry in San Francisco, not really knowing what they’ll find when they get there.

As she did in her other epic novels Countdown and Revolution, two-time National Book Award finalist Deborah Wiles takes the pulse of an era . . . and finds the multitude of heartbeats that lie beneath it.

Paws vs. Claws: A Queenie and Arthur Mystery

By Spencer Quinn

Queenie the cat has a BIG problem. And for once, it’s not the slobbery, overly-excited creature who also lives at Blackberry Hill Inn. Sweet Lady Emsworth, the neighbor’s prize cow, has disappeared, meaning no morning cream for Queenie. And when Queenie’s not happy, NO ONE is happy . . .

Things aren’t looking great for Arthur the dog, either. His beloved humans, twins Harmony and Bro, are distressed about the strange activity in their town. Mysterious hi-tech people are suddenly very interested in nearby Catastrophe Falls, bills are piling up at their mom’s inn . . . and now the twins might be hiding a fugitive?! Arthur is desperate to help but for some reason, no one seems to think he’s up to the task. (Could that be because he can’t remember what happened more than ten seconds ago? Surely not!) Can Arthur save the day-and become a hero in Queenie’s eyes-without making a disastrous splash?

How do you find courage in the face of hate, and what does it truly mean to take a stand?

Anything But Okay
By Sarah Darer Littman

Stella and Farida have been best friends forever, but lately things have been tense. It all started when Stella’s brother came home from his latest tour with the US Marines in Afghanistan paranoid and angry. But Stella won’t talk about it, and Farida can tell she’s keeping something from her.

Desperate to help Rob, Stella thinks she just needs to get him out of the house. She definitely didn’t expect going to the movies to end with Rob in handcuffs for assaulting one of her classmates after his anger spiraled out of control.

When a video of the fight goes viral, everyone has an opinion of Stella and her “violent vet” brother.

The entire school takes sides, the media labels Rob a terrorist sympathizer, and even Farida is dragged into the mess despite not being there.

As the story continues trending, Stella will have to decide just how far she’s willing to go for the truth, even if it means admitting her own failures.

The stakes have never been higher than in the final installment of Magisterium!

Magisterium #5: The Golden Tower
By Holly Black and Cassandra Clare

Callum Hunt has been a hero and an outcast, a force of good and a portent of evil. While the doors of the Magisterium have been open to him, he has never felt entirely welcome. If anything, he has felt others’ resentment . . . and fear.

Now, as he begins his final year at the magical school, his place is less certain than ever. With one unique exception, he is estranged from most of his friends. A furtive darkness still hounds him. And the greatest challenge he will ever face is right around the corner.

In this monumental conclusion to the Magisterium series, bestselling authors Holly Black and Cassandra Clare push Callum to the brink of annihilation, showing how magic has the ability to both save and doom, create and destroy.

An enchanting fairy tale told with Cornelia Funke’s trademark warmth and wit!

Igraine the Brave
By Cornelia Funke

Igraine dreams of becoming a famous knight just like her great grandfather, but the truth is, life at the family castle is rather boring. Until the nephew of the baroness-next-door shows up. He’s got a dastardly plan to capture the castle and claim as his own the wonderful singing spell books that belong to Igraine’s magician parents.

To make matters worse, at the very moment of the siege, her mom and dad botch a spell, turning themselves into pigs!

Aided by a Gentle Giant and a Sorrowful Knight, it’s up to Igraine to be brave and save the day—and the books!

By Cornelia Funke

The sequel to the #1 New York Times Bestseller!

It’s now been two years since Ben and Firedrake defeated Nettlebrand and rescued the silver dragons. Both boy and dragon have finally found homes, but they must live hundreds of miles apart and can only see each other every once in a while.

During one such visit, news reaches Ben, the Greenblooms, and their friends that the last Pegasus in the world has been discovered. The legendary horse has three unhatched eggs with him, but the only way they’ll ever hatch — and continue the survival of this incredible magical species — is to place them under a griffin’s feather. But griffins are the most dangerous creatures in the world, and their mortal enemies are dragons.

Ben has vowed not to tell Firedrake about his quest, to protect him. But as he and the Greenbloom team set off for a remote island where the terrible griffins are rumored to live, he may just need the help of his best friend and dragon.

If you don’t stand up to your fears, they will destroy you.

The Fear Zone
By K. R. Alexander

When five kids are invited to a cemetery at midnight, they think it’s just a prank. When they find a gravestone that instructs them to dig up a grave, they think it’s just a joke. It’s no joke.

An evil force is unleashed - a force that takes the shape of their worst fears.

A shark in the water.
A ghost in the walls.
A nightmare of being buried alive.
A snake about to strike.
A sinister clown waiting in the woods.

Once these fears are released, they won’t go away. Not without a fight. . . .

K. R. Alexander scours the world for fantastic and true stories (but this book is made up . . . right?) and is an avid collector of things mysterious and macabre. K. R. is the author of many books for adults and teens, though they write under various guises. K.R. recommends having your toys face the wall at night. Just in case.

Me, Frida, and the Secret of the Peacock Ring
By Angela Cervantes
A room locked for fifty years.
A valuable peacock ring.
A mysterious brother-sister duo.

Paloma Marquez is traveling to Mexico City, birthplace of her deceased father, for the very first time. She’s hoping that spending time in Mexico will help her unlock memories of the too-brief time they spent together.

While in Mexico, Paloma meets Lizzie and Gael, who present her with an irresistible challenge: The siblings want her to help them find a valuable ring that once belonged to beloved Mexican artist Frida Kahlo. Finding the ring means a big reward—and the thanks of all Mexico. What better way to honor her father than returning a priceless piece of jewelry that once belonged to his favorite artist!

Angela Cervantes is a poet, storyteller, and animal lover. Her poetry and short stories have appeared in various publications, and she has written the novels Gaby, Lost and Found and Allie, First at Last. Visit her online at www.angelacervantes.com.
A dazzling adventure
full of magic, snow . . . and sisters!
Perfect for fans of Frozen.

Hearts of Ice
By Adi Rule

Evangeline has been lonely her whole life. Her mother rarely lets her play outside . . . especially not when it’s snowing. It’s almost as if she wants to hide her daughter from the world.

For as long as she can remember, Evangeline has felt someone missing, like a best friend who moved away, or an imaginary friend she’s forgotten. She knows it sounds crazy, but the thought has always given her comfort—the idea that there’s someone waiting for her, looking for her. Someone who cares about her.

On her birthday, Evangeline finds her window has blown open, and her room is full of snow. There’s a message written in the frost. One word.
HELP

Evangeline learns that she has a sister, a twin, in fact. They were both born in another world—a land of snow and music and ancient magic. Now, someone is calling Evangeline back, and will stop at nothing to lure her into the magical realm where danger lurks.

Adi Rule is the author of Strange Sweet Song. She grew up among cats, ducks, and writers. She studied music as an undergrad, and has an MFA from the Vermont College of Fine Arts. Adi is a member of, and has been a soloist for, the Tanglewood Festival Chorus, the chorus of the Boston Symphony Orchestra/Boston Pops. She lives in New Hampshire.
The original storybook that inspired the hit new TV show on YTV and Disney Channel!

Go Away, Unicorn!
By Emily Mullock

The original storybook that inspired the animated TV show on Disney Channel!

Go Away, Unicorn is a funny, quirky book about the misadventures of an independent young girl, Alice, and her unicorn best friend, who constantly pops in and out of her life unannounced.

Alice isn’t interested in things like rainbows, glitter, the color pink, and unicorns. So her life is turned upside-down when a real-live unicorn shows up at her birthday party and decides to be her best friend. Unicorn is a wild, wacky, party animal who does everything he can to inject fun into Alice’s day.

Though she would never admit it, Unicorn’s zany and unpredictable personality is the perfect addition to Alice’s busy life. While it’s hard for her to refuse his bubbly and sparkly personality, he can really be a horn in her side. And that’s when you’ll hear her say “GO AWAY, UNICORN!”

Emily Mullock was born and raised in the Fraser Valley of British Columbia and grew up experimenting in the arts through finger painting, crayons, and mud. She drew dragons, monsters, and more than a couple of unicorns. She later graduated to tidier mediums while attending Capilano University’s animation program. Emily is currently an art director of children’s books, games and animation.

The miracle of Christmas comes alive in this luminous celebration of unconditional love from Printz Honor recipient Julie Berry!

Long Ago, On a Silent Night
By Julie Berry
Illustrated by Annie Won

Long ago, in a dusty barn, a mother took a child in her arms, wrapped him snug, made his bed in the hay. He was her gift that Christmas Day. There’s no sweeter gift than a life so new. My best gift, little one, is you.

In this poignant and lyrical story by Printz Honor recipient Julie Berry, the miracle of Christmas and the promise in every new child comes together in a luminous celebration of unconditional love and hope. With tender, incandescent illustrations by Annie Won, the wonder of the nativity story and the marvel of every baby comes alive in a wholly extraordinary book for families everywhere.

How Do Dinosaurs Say Happy Chanukah?
By Jane Yolen
Illustrated by Mark Teague

From the warm glow of the candles in the menorah to the fun of family gatherings, little dinosaurs love to celebrate the Festival of Lights. But sometimes the excitement of Chanukah, its treasured rituals, and the tradition of gifts can tempt a youngster to misbehave...

Come along on a joyful romp filled with tumbling dreidels and melting gelt as America’s favorite prehistoric pals spread a little mischief this season. Children will laugh out loud as dinosaurs fidget, fuss, and stomp through every occasion, while their human parents shift from shock to weary patience.

America’s bestselling dinosaur series celebrates Christmas and Hanukkah in two board books!

Jane Yolen is the beloved author of more than 300 books for children and adults, including award-winning picture books, fiction, nonfiction, and poetry. From Alan Gratz, the New York Times bestselling author of Refugee!

Allies
By Alan Gratz
D-Day, June 6, 1944: the most expansive military endeavor in history.

No less than world cooperation would bring down Hitler and the Axis powers. And so people — and kids — across the globe lent their part.

From the young US soldiers in the boats to spies in the French countryside, the coordination of thousands came together.

Alan Gratz, author of the New York Times bestselling Refugee, explores the necessity of teamwork and heroism in dismantling tyranny in this epic, yet personal, look at D-Day in time for the 75th anniversary of the operation.

Excerpt from Words on Fire:

Milda sat quietly as I spoke, occasionally dabbing at her eyes with the corner of her apron. Lukas seemed to have forgotten his food and merely stared at me, slack-jawed.

Before I finished, I added, “Milda, I only came here because…well, I have an idea. The Cossacks want whatever is in that package, and I want my parents back. Will you help me make a trade?”

Milda’s expression fell. “It won’t work, Audra. They’d only take the package and use it to convict your parents, not save them.”

I hadn’t wanted to hear that. My plan was the only thing that had allowed me to hold myself together all this time. I couldn’t let it go like that, like these ideas were nothing more than smoke in my hand.

But, Milda had just told me, they were only smoke in my hand.

“Then what did they give me?” I asked. “Can I see it?”

“I think you must see it.” Milda reached over to the package and carefully undid the twine around it. She unfolded the fabric toward her so I couldn’t see the object until she lifted it up. And when she did, my fists curled and I felt nearly ready to explode with anger.

It was a book. Just a stupid, ordinary book.
transports readers to a historical, of book smugglers!

Words On Fire
By Jennifer A. Nielsen

Danger is never far from Audra’s family farm in Lithuania. She always avoids the occupying Russian Cossack soldiers, who insist that everyone must become Russian – they have banned Lithuanian books, religion, culture, and even the language. But Audra knows her parents are involved in something secret and perilous.

When Cossacks arrive abruptly at their door, Audra’s parents insist that she flee, taking with her an important package and instructions for where to deliver it. But escape means abandoning her parents to a terrible fate.

As Audra embarks on a journey to deliver the mysterious package, she faces unimaginable risks, and soon she becomes caught up in a growing resistance movement. Can joining the underground network of book smugglers give Audra a chance to rescue her parents?

Jaclyn Moriarty returns with her first middle-grade novel, a buoyantly high-spirited fantasy adventure!

The Extremely Inconvenient Adventures of Bronte Mettlestone
By Jaclyn Moriarty

Bronte Mettlestone is ten years old when her parents are killed by pirates.

This does not bother her particularly: Her parents ran away to have adventures when she was a baby. She has been raised by her Aunt Isabelle, with assistance from the Butler, and has spent a pleasant childhood of afternoon teas and riding lessons. Now, however, her parents have left detailed instructions for Bronte in their will. (Instructions that, annoyingly, have been reinforced with faery cross-stitch, which means that if she doesn’t complete them, terrible things could happen!) She travels the kingdoms, perfectly alone, delivering gifts to 10 other aunts: a farmer aunt who owns an orange orchard, a veterinarian aunt who specializes in dragon care, a pair of aunts who captain a cruise ship, and a former rock star aunt who is now the reigning monarch of a small kingdom.

But as she travels from aunt to aunt, Bronte suspects there might be more to this journey than the simple delivery of treasure.

Praise for The Extremely Inconvenient Adventures of Bronte Mettlestone:

The Whispering Wars
By Jaclyn Moriarty

The town of Spindrift is frequented by all kinds of Shadow Mages and charlatans.

It’s also home to the Orphanage School, where Finlay lives with Glim, Taya, and Eli. Just outside town is the painfully posh Brathelthwaite Boarding School, home to Honey Bee, Hamish, and Victor, Duke of Ainsley. When the two schools compete at the Spindrift Tournament, the stakes are high, tensions are higher, and some people are out to win at any cost. Before long, the orphans and the boarding school kids are at each other’s throats.

And then the Whispering Wars break out, and Spindrift is thrust onto the front lines. Children are being stolen; witches, sirens, and a deadly magical flu invade the town; and all attempts to fight back are met with defeat.

Finlay, Honey Bee, and their friends must join forces to outwit the encroaching forces of darkness, rescue the stolen children, and turn the tide of the war. But how can one bickering troupe outwit the insidious power of the Whisperers?

A charming middle-grade mystery from a two-time winner of the American Indian Youth Literature Award!

Timmy loves reading stories about great detectives, and soon he begins to spy mysteries all around his small Oklahoma town.

Why was his next-door neighbor, the distinguished Dr. Moore, standing outside with a knife at midnight? Who’s sneaking around their house, shining flashlights in the windows? And where did Mrs. Newberry’s diamond necklace go? As Timmy and Doc work together to unmask the thief, Timmy also comes to understand the challenges Doc and his family face with his developing dementia, and discovers that a real detective needs a good heart as well as a sharp brain.

Tim Tingle is an Oklahoma Choctaw and an award-winning author and storyteller. He received his Master’s Degree in English Literature at the University of Oklahoma in 2003, with a focus on American Indian studies. His first children’s book, Crossing Bok Chitto, garnered over 20 state and national awards. He is also the author of the critically acclaimed novels, How I Became a Ghost, and House of Purple Cedar. As a visiting author and performer, Tingle reaches audiences numbering over 200,000 annually. He lives in Canyon Lake, Texas.

McClain Moore is an enrolled member of the Choctaw Nation and an acclaimed visual and graphic artist. He grew up in Northeastern Oklahoma and now lives in Haywood County, North Carolina.
The Year We Fell From Space

By Amy Sarig King

Liberty Johansen is going to change the way we look at the night sky. Most people see the old constellations, the things they’ve been told to see. But Liberty sees new patterns, pictures, and possibilities. She’s an exception.

Some other exceptions:

Her dad, who gave her the stars. Who moved out months ago and hasn’t talked to her since.

Her mom, who’s happier since he left, even though everyone thinks she should be sad and lonely.

And her sister, who won’t go outside their house.

Liberty feels like her whole world is falling from space. Can she map a new life for herself and her family before they spin too far out of reach?

Top Elf
By Caleb Huett
These elves are off the shelves.
Ollie and Celia think they know what the life of an elf is supposed to be like: Make toys. Help Santa. Make more toys. Help Santa. Try out a new ice-cream flavor. Help Santa.
But then Santa rocks the North Pole with a surprise announcement! He's decided this is going to be his last year in the Big Red Suit—and instead of letting his oldest son, the unfortunately named Klaus Claus, take over, he’s opening up the job to an kid who wants to apply—Claus or elf.
The Santa Trials have begun!
Ollie and Celia enter the contest, having no idea whatsoever that they’ll soon have to squeeze through impossible chimneys, race runaway sleighs, sweet-talk a squad of rowdy reindeer, and consume cruel amounts of cookies and milk. It’s both an adventure and a survival test, far beyond what any elf or Claus has been asked to do before. But whoever rises to the top will get a reward even bigger than Christmas . . .

Caleb Zane Huett is a playwright, indie bookseller, and undercover reindeer. He’s a graduate of the University of Georgia, and he’s really good at video games. One time he won a funnel cake doing the Macarena to Christmas music at a rodeo. Top Elf is his debut novel. He lives in Athens, Georgia, and you can find him at www.calebzanehuett.com.

Snow One Like You: A Wish Novel
By Natalie Blitt

Mia can’t wait for the Winter Festival – it’s what her hometown, Flurry, Vermont, is famous for. Plus, maybe she can work up the courage to show the cute new boy, Yoshi, how much fun snowball fights can be.

There’s just one problem: the weather forecast isn’t predicting a single snowflake before the big day. And what’s the Winter Festival without snow?

Cancelling the festival would spell disaster for the local businesses, including the cozy inn that Mia’s family runs. With the town in chaos, Mia is suddenly at odds with Yoshi and with her best friend, Lark. Can Mia save the festival in time . . . or is she in for a wintry mix of troubles?

Chosen to journey to the top of the glacier in their village, Sabira must learn to survive the harsh elements!

Frostfire

By Jamie Smith

On Choosing Day, children of Adranna who reach the age of fourteen are finally eligible to undergo the tests to determine if they are worthy of bonding a Frostsliver. Only one in a hundred are destined to succeed. If chosen, they will have to climb to the top of the glacier and cut a piece off for themselves, so that they may be granted the powers they’ve always dreamed of.

When Sabira is chosen, an entire world of possibilities opens up to her. But in order to see it through, she’ll have to embark on a dangerous pilgrimage to the top of the glacier. When a huge avalanche traps her on the glacier and destroys the pass, she must face up to the merciless mountain – but there are dark and fiery secrets hiding in its depths...

Jamie is the debut author of the 2016 Times/Chicken House Children’s Fiction Competition. Between working as a retail software developer and dealing with the whims of cats, he has written more books than he should have and is always working on more. He lives near Stafford.
A rich and magical fantasy perfect for fans of Cornelia Funke or Rick Riordan!

Legends of the Sky: Dragon Daughter
By Liz Flanagan

On the island of Arcosi, dragons and their riders used to rule the skies. But now they are only legends, found in bedtime stories, on beautiful murals and ancient jewelry. When servant girl Milla witnesses a murder and finds herself caring for the last four dragon eggs, she is forced to keep them secret amidst the growing tensions in the city. But how can Milla and her friends keep the eggs safe when it means endangering everything she’s ever loved?

Fiery friendships, forgotten family and the struggle for power collide as Milla’s fight to save the dragons leads her to discover her own hidden past.

Perfect for fans of Cornelia Funke or Rick Riordan, Dragon Daughter is a rich and magical fantasy that touches on the questions of politics, war, and immigration.

Until recently, Liz ran Lumb Bank—the Ted Hughes Arvon Centre—supporting its famous writing courses. She previously worked as a commissioning editor in a children’s publishing. Visit her online at www.lizflanagan.co.uk.
A startlingly original magical adventure that gives the phrase “unlikely hero” a whole new meaning.

Rose Coffin
By M. P. Kozlowsky

Rose Coffin can’t win. She’s teased for her secondhand clothes. She’s teased for blushing all the time. And she’s teased for slipping into song at inopportune moments, though that’s the only thing that keeps her panic at bay.

After a particularly mortifying incident, Rose escapes to the woods where she’s captured by a group of otherworldly creatures. They take her to Eppersett—a magical, eerily beautiful place where cemeteries are full of dead dreams, moving castles roll along on tracks, and most shocking of all... people seem to love Rose at first sight. They tell her that she’s “the one they’ve been waiting for. The one who’s going to save them.” An evil force called the Abomination is on the loose, and there’s only one thing powerful enough to stop it—her voice.

There’s just one catch. Rose hasn’t been brought to Eppersett to fight the Abomination.

She’s going to be sacrificed to it. She’s the chosen one all right... the one who’s been chosen to die.

M. P. Kozlowsky is the author of two middle-grade novels, Juniper Berry and The Dyerville Tales. Frost was his first novel for Young Adults. He lives in Westchester, New York, with his wife and two daughters.
An exquisite novel that reminds us that grief and love can open the world in mystical ways!

Hurricane Child
By Kheryn Callender

Caroline Murphy is a Hurricane Child.

Being born during a hurricane is unlucky, and 12-year-old Caroline has had her share of bad luck lately. She’s hated and bullied by everyone in her small school on St. Thomas of the US Virgin Islands, a spirit only she can see won’t stop following her, and — worst of all — Caroline’s mother left home one day and never came back.

But when a new student named Kalinda arrives, Caroline’s luck begins to turn around. Kalinda, a solemn girl from Barbados with a special smile for everyone, becomes Caroline’s first and only friend — and the person for whom Caroline has begun to develop a crush.

Now, Caroline must find the strength to confront her feelings for Kalinda, brave the spirit stalking her through the islands, and face the reason her mother abandoned her. Together, Caroline and Kalinda must set out in a hurricane to find Caroline’s missing mother — before Caroline loses her forever.

Born and raised on St. Thomas of the US Virgin Islands, Kheryn Callender holds a BA from Sarah Lawrence College, where they studied fine arts, Japanese, and creative writing, as well as an MFA from The New School’s Writing for Children program. Their debut novel Hurricane Child was met with high praise and was a Kirkus Best Book of 2018.
Excerpt from Take the Mic:

Introduction

I knew from the start that I wanted this anthology to be about the everyday. I wanted not only to acknowledge the more dangerous world in which you are growing up, but to give you permission to resist everywhere. Not just in the street, against an obvious foe, but also in your lives, in your schools, in your friendships. I wanted to give you stories of kids who might not have control of their country, but who take control of the moments that make up their reality.

An Indigenous girl who doesn’t stand for unwanted physical advances. (“Grace” by Darcie Little Badger.)

A Jewish girl who calls out anti-Semitism, whether in the form of online vitriol or casual prejudice from a close friend. (“Ruth” by Laura Silverman.)

A Muslimah who won’t answer every offensive interrogation that normalized Islamophobia allows. (“Are You the Good Kind of Muslim?” by Samira Ahmed.)

My hope is that Take the Mic will act as both a call and a comfort. To own those smaller, less visible acts of resistance that aren’t getting news coverage, and to tell you that you are not going unnoticed. You are not forgotten.

Keep going.

Keep living, keep loving yourselves and each other.

We’re proud of you, and we’re going to keep fighting to make you proud of us.

Bethany C. Morrow
featuring fictional stories — of everyday resistance!

Take the Mic: Fictional Stories of Everyday Resistance
Edited by Bethany Morrow

You might be the kind of person who stands up to online trolls.
Or who marches to protest injustice.
Perhaps you are #DisabledAndCute and dancing around your living room, alive and proud.
Or perhaps you are the trans mentor that you wish you had when you were younger.
Maybe you call out false allies, or stand up to loved ones.
Maybe you speak your truth and drop the mic, or maybe you take it with you when you leave.

This anthology features fictional stories—in poems, prose, and art—that reflect a slice of the varied and limitless ways that readers like you resist every day. TAKE THE MIC’s powerful collection of stories features work by literary luminaries and emerging talent alike, including Newbery-winner Jason Reynolds, New York Times bestseller Samira Ahmed, anthologist and contributor Bethany C. Morrow, Darcie Little Badger, Jem Yoshioka, Keah Brown, Laura Silverman, L.D. Lewis, Sofia Quintero, Ray Stoeve, Yamile Mendez, and Connie Sun, with cover and interior art by Richie Pope.

Bethany C. Morrow is the author of speculative stories that run the gamut between science fiction and speculative literary fiction. Her debut novel, MEM was an ABA Indies Introduce and Indies Next pick. Her debut YA novel is forthcoming from Tor in 2020. She is also a sensitivity reader.
The haunting tale of a family that moves into a new house and finds that something does NOT want them there!

Creep
By Eireann Corrigan

Olivia is curious about the people moving into 16 Olcott Place. The last family there moved out in the dead of night, and the new family, the Donahues, has no idea why. Olivia becomes fast friends with Janie Donahue . . . so she’s there at the house when the first of the letters arrives:

—I am the Sentry of Glennon Heights. Long ago I claimed 16 Olcott Place as levy for my guardianship. The walls will not tolerate your trespass. The ceilings will bleed and the windows will shatter. If you do not cease your intrusion, the rooms will soon smell of corpses.—

Who is the Sentry? And why does the Sentry want the Donahues out of the house badly enough to kill? As Olivia and Janie explore the house, they find a number of sinister secrets . . . and as they explore their town, they find a hidden history that the Sentry wants to remain hidden forever.

You can lock the doors. You can close the windows. But you can’t keep the Sentry out . . .

Eireann Corrigan is the author of the poetry memoir You Remind Me of You, and the novels Splintering, Ordinary Ghosts, The Believing Game, and Accomplice, which Publishers Weekly called “haunting and provocative” in a starred review. She lives in New Jersey.
A queer #OwnVoices science-fantasy novel, perfect for fans of Marissa Meyer and Sharon Cameron.

Tarnished are the Stars
By Rosiee Thor

A secret beats inside Anna Thatcher’s chest: an illegal clockwork heart. Anna works cog by cog — donning the moniker Technician — to supply black market medical technology to the sick and injured, against the Commissioner’s tyrannical laws.

Nathaniel Fremont, the Commissioner’s son, has never had to fear the law. Determined to earn his father’s respect, Nathaniel sets out to capture the Technician. But the more he learns about the outlaw, the more he questions whether his father’s elusive affection is worth chasing at all.

Their game of cat and mouse takes an abrupt turn when Eliza, a skilled assassin and spy, arrives. Her mission is to learn the Commissioner’s secrets at any cost — even if it means betraying her own heart.

When these uneasy allies discover the most dangerous secret of all, they must work together despite their differences and put an end to a deadly epidemic — before the Commissioner ends them first.

Rosiee Thor began her career as a storyteller by demanding to tell her mother bedtime stories instead of the other way around. She remained bossy through college, where she received a lot of dance trophies and a degree in medieval history, all of which are now purely decorative. Tarnished Are the Stars is her first novel. She lives in Oregon. Visit her online at www.rosieethor.com.

Fake (Point)
By Donna Cooner
Maisie Fernandez is fed up. Fed up with the bullies who taunt her about her size and her looks. Fed up with being the butt of everyone’s jokes.

So, one night, Maisie goes online and creates a fake profile. “Sienna” is beautiful, skinny, and confident — and soon she’s messaging the most popular kids in Maisie’s school. Maisie doesn’t care about being friends with them. She wants to use Sienna to take them down.

But as Maisie’s web of deception grows, she’s in danger of being exposed. And what will happen when the actual Sienna — the girl whose photos Maisie has been using — shows up in real life?

comes Hally Tosis, the adorable dog breath away (literally)!

Dog Breath
By Dav Pilkey

Hally Tosis is a great family dog, but there is one rotten thing about her: her breath! It is so smelly, Hally’s pet parents want to find a new home for her. The children, desperate to keep their beloved pet, try everything to rid Hally of her stinky stench. They take her for a breath-taking view, a movie that would leave her breathless, and a ride on a roller coaster that would make her lose her breath, but Hally’s putrid panting persists! Only a miracle could save her now!

This hysterical read-aloud and fan-favourite picture book is now available for the first time in a paper-over-board format!

Caldecott Honor winner Elisha Cooper invites readers on a river exploration filled with adventure and beauty.

River
By Elisha Cooper

A breathtaking adventure as a traveler and her canoe begin their trek down the Hudson River. In a mountain lake, the canoe gently enters the water’s edge, paddling toward the river. The nautical journey begins.

She is alone, far from home.

Three hundred miles stretch in front of her.

A faraway destination, a wild plan. And the question: can she do this?

In Cooper’s flowing prose and stunning watercolor scenes, readers can follow along the trek as the woman and her canoe explore the wildlife, flora and fauna, and urban landscape at the river’s edge. Through perilous weather and river rushes, the canoe and her captain survive and maneuver their way down the river back home.

River is an outstanding introduction to seeing the world through the eyes of a young explorer and a great picture book for the STEAM curriculum.

Maps and information about the Hudson River and famous landmarks are included in the back of the book.

Two-time Caldecott Medalists Leo and Diane Dillon bring us a touching story about the power of family.

Love and the Rocking Chair
By Diane Dillon & Leo Dillon

Simple words and colorful paintings tell the warm, engaging story of new parents who buy a rocking chair when they are expecting a baby. Bright, sunny illustrations show the precious intimacy between parents and their children; the new mother glows with affection, and the new father reads aloud to their young son.

Time passes, and the boy grows up; the beloved rocker is moved to the attic and gathers dust. But when the boy becomes a man, the cycle begins anew. He and his wife have a baby girl, and the rocking chair is needed again.

Legendary artists Leo and Diane Dillon are two of the greatest illustrators of our time. This is their final collaboration, inspired by their own rocking chair. It is a tender tribute to the enduring power of family love—passed from generation to generation.

Here is a book for all ages to cherish. It serves as a loving reminder of those who have gone before us—and those who are still to come.

The Forgotten Girl
By India Hill Brown

“Do you know what it feels like to be forgotten?”

On a cold winter night, Iris and her best friend, Daniel, sneak into a clearing in the woods to play in the freshly fallen snow. There, Iris carefully makes a perfect snow angel - only to find the crumbling gravestone of a young girl, Avery Moore, right beneath her.

Immediately, strange things start to happen to Iris: She begins having vivid nightmares. She wakes up to find her bedroom window wide open, letting in the snow. She thinks she sees the shadow of a girl lurking in the woods. And she feels the pull of the abandoned grave, calling her back to the clearing...

Obsessed with figuring out what’s going on, Iris and Daniel start to research the area for a school project. They discover that Avery’s grave is actually part of a neglected and forgotten Black cemetery, dating back to a time when White and Black people were kept separate in life - and in death.

But they have awakened a jealous and demanding ghost, one that’s not satisfied with their plans for getting recognition. One that is searching for a best friend forever - no matter what the cost.

The Forgotten Girl is both a spooky original ghost story and a timely and important storyline about reclaiming an abandoned segregated cemetery.

India Hill Brown is a southern belle who recently moved back down south to North Carolina after living in NYC and working at HBO. Her day job is in social media, and her passion is writing. A boy and a girl in the Philippine jungle must confront what coming of age will mean to their friendship.

Bone Talk
By Candy Gourlay

Samkad lives deep in the Philippine jungle, and has never encountered anyone from outside his own tribe before. He’s about to become a man, and while he’s desperate to grow up, he’s worried that this will take him away from his best friend, Little Luki, who isn’t ready for the traditions and ceremonies of being a girl in her tribe.

But when a bad omen sends Samkad’s life in another direction, he discovers the brother he never knew he had. A brother who tells him of a people called ‘Americans’. A people who are bringing war, and destruction right to their home...

A coming-of-age story set at the end of the 19th century in a remote village in the Philippines, this is a story about growing up, discovering yourself, and the impact of colonialism on native peoples and their lives.

Candy Gourlay was born in a city called Davao in the Philippines. From 1984 to 1989, she worked as a journalist in the Philippines for the People Power Revolution, and most notably as a staff writer and later associate editor of the weekly opposition tabloid Mr. & Ms. Special Edition, which played a significant role in the overthrow of the 21-year regime of Filipino dictator Ferdinand Marcos.

Amber & Dusk
By Lyra Selene

Sylvie has always known she deserves more. Out in the permanent twilight of the Dusklands, her guardians called her power to create illusions a curse. But Sylvie knows it gives her a place in Coeur d’Or, the palais of the Amber Empress and her highborn legacies.

So Sylvie sets off toward the Amber City, a glittering jewel under a sun that never sets, to take what is hers.

But her hope for a better life is quickly dimmed. The empress invites her in only as part of a wicked wager among her powerful courtiers. Sylvie must assume a new name, Mirage, and begin to navigate secretive social circles and deadly games of intrigue in order to claim her spot. Soon it becomes apparent that nothing is as it appears and no one, including her cruel yet captivating sponsor, Sunder, will answer her questions. As Mirage strives to seize what should be her rightful place, she’ll have to consider whether it is worth the price she must pay.
The second installment in Amber & Dusk, about the corrosions of even the most dazzling dreams.

Diamond & Dawn: An Amber & Dusk Novel

By Lyra Selene

Mirage, triumphant in her coup of the Amber Empire, returns to the palais prepared to take her place as Empress. With the support of her friends, Luca and Lullaby, and a tentative, blossoming romance with Sunder, Mirage is on the cusp of taking hold of everything she has wanted.

However, her place in the sun is not as sure as she expected; nor is it quite as bright as she imagined.

When the Empress Severine’s body is recovered from the battle, she is not dead after all — in a coma, she still represents a threat to Mirage’s newfound power. Worse, a distant cousin, Gavin d’Ars, Duc de Douane, appears in court to challenge both women with his blood claim, and to propose a series of trials to determine the most deserving heir. In Mirage’s fight to defend her vision for the empire, she begins to splinter all of her networks. Will the battle for control leave anyone untainted?

Lyra Selene was born under a full moon and has never quite managed to wipe the moonlight out of her eyes. When she isn’t dreaming up fantastical cities and brooding landscapes, Lyra enjoys hiking, rainstorms, autumn, and pretending she’s any good at painting. She lives in New England with her husband, in an antique farmhouse that’s probably not haunted. Amber & Dusk was her debut novel.

Special Forces #2:
Minesweeper
By Chris Lynch

Discover the secret missions behind America’s greatest conflicts.

Fergus Frew thought he knew what to expect when he signed up with the Navy’s demolitions team. But as the Korean War rages on, Fergus and his fellow divers — AKA “frogmen” — are tasked with more than just scouting mudflats. Soon they’re planting mines. And sabotaging tunnels, bridges... and even fishing nets. Strangest of all, it falls to Fergus to transport a spy into the country — and that means traveling far from Navy-controlled waters.

But frogmen are amphibious. And Fergus may not realize it, but he’s in a position to change the way the whole world thinks about combat.

National Book Award finalist Chris Lynch continues his explosive fiction series based on the real-life, top-secret history of US black ops and today’s heroic Navy SEALs.

Shadowscent
By P. M. Freestone

Across the Aramtesh Empire, scent is everything. Prayers only reach heaven on sacred incense, and perfumes are prized status symbols. 17-year-old Rakel has an uncanny ability with fragrances, but her skills aren’t enough to buy her dying father more time.

Ash bears the tattoos of an imperial bodyguard. When his prince, Nisai, insists on a diplomatic mission to an outer province, Ash is duty-bound to join the caravan. It’s a nightmare protecting Nisai on the road. But it’s even harder for Ash to conceal a secret that could see him exiled or executed.

Rakel and Ash have nothing in common until smoke draws them to a field of the Empire’s rarest flower. Nisai’s been poisoned, flames devour the priceless blooms, and the pair have “suspect” clinging to them like a bad stench. Their futures depend on them working together to decipher clues, defy dangers and defeat their own demons in a race to source an antidote . . . before the imperial army hunts them down.

P. M. Freestone writes young adult fiction. Her debut fantasy novel, Shadowscent: The Darkest Bloom will be published by Scholastic in the UK, USA and Australia in 2019, and will be translated into six other languages. She lives in Edinburgh, Scotland with her partner and rescue dog.

From the creator of Riverdale comes the Chilling Adventures of Sabrina! This prequel tells an all-new original story.

Chilling Adventures of Sabrina, Book 1: Season of the Witch

By Sarah Rees Brennan

It’s the summer before her sixteenth birthday, and Sabrina Spellman knows her world is about to change. She’s always studied magic and spells with her aunts, Hilda and Zelda. But she’s also lived a normal mortal life — attending Baxter High, hanging out with her friends Susie and Roz, and going to the movies with her boyfriend, Harvey Kinkle.

Now time is running out on her everyday, normal world, and leaving behind Roz and Susie and Harvey is a lot harder than she thought it would be. Especially because Sabrina isn’t sure how Harvey feels about her. Her cousin Ambrose suggests performing a spell to discover Harvey’s true feelings. But when a mysterious wood spirit interferes, the spell backfires . . . in a big way.

Sabrina has always been attracted to the power of being a witch. But now she can’t help wondering if that power is leading her down the wrong path. Will she choose to forsake the path of light and follow the path of night?

This exclusive prequel novel will reveal a side of Sabrina not seen on the new Netflix show. What choice will Sabrina make... and will it be the right one?

Brand Highlights

• Netflix’s Chilling Adventures of Sabrina debuted October 26th with 10 episodes and has an over 90% positive rating on Rotten Tomatoes so far!

• Supported by a dedicated twitter account @Sabrinanetflix

Sarah Rees Brennan is the author of The Demon’s Lexicon and Lynburn Legacy series; Tell the Wind and Fire and In Other Lands; and several collaborations with writers Cassandra Clare, Maureen Johnson, and Kelly Link. She lives in Ireland.

The war rages in the official YA series based on the Halo video games!

Halo: Battle Born: Meridian Divide
By Cassandra Rose Clarke

It’s been three months since the colony world of Meridian was invaded by the alien alliance known as the Covenant. Under the close watch of the military, Evie, Dorian, Saskia, and Victor have been put into an accelerated training program with ONI, the Office of Naval Intelligence. And to the teens’ surprise, ONI has a mission for them: Return to their hometown on Meridian and monitor the Covenant’s efforts to retrieve an ancient Forerunner artifact of untold power.

But what seems like a simple job quickly spirals out of their control. With the artifact at risk of falling into Covenant hands, the stakes are raised, and ONI tasks the teens and their team of militia fighters with extracting the artifact for study.

After a series of missteps with command costs the militia more than half their fighting forces, the teens take matters into their own hands. Their journey will take them far behind enemy lines, into the heart of the war zones on Meridian.

Bendy and the Ink Machine . . . if you dare!

Bendy and the Ink Machine, Book 1: Dreams Come To Life

By Adrienne Kress

Seventeen-year-old Buddy has spent most of his life trying to escape the Lower East Side slums of New York City. Working as a delivery boy to support his family, Buddy wants to become an artist, a dream he’s sure will never be realized. But that all changes when a delivery job puts him face-to-face with Mister Joey Drew, the eccentric owner of an animation studio.

Mister Drew takes Buddy under his wing as an apprentice, thrusting him into a world unlike anything Buddy has ever seen before. There’s the colorful cast of the studio, from the cranky, yet driven composer Sammy Lawrence to Dot, the writing intern and Buddy’s counterpart. Working for Mister Drew, Buddy starts to think that maybe it’s really as simple as Mister Drew says: Dreams do come true. But not everything at the studio is as picture-perfect as it seems . . .

Praise for Mac Undercover, illustrated by Mike Lowery:

* “…Lowery’s comic-style images play a key role in the humor… Told with a sense of nostalgia for 1980s history and pop culture, the silliness and originality of this book will hook young readers.” — School Library Journal, starred review

“[Barnett’s] riotous series debut as an adult recalling a 1980s childhood caper… goofy, two-color pictures by Lowery (the Doodle Adventure series) ramp up the silliness of this adventure… which should snare even the most hesitant readers.” — Publishers Weekly

Mike Lowery, creator of the Doodle Adventures series, The Kid’s Awesome Activity Calendar, and illustrator of the Mac B., Sky Kid series (written by Mac Barnett), is an illustrator whose work appears in everything from greeting cards to children’s books. He lives with his wife and two children in Atlanta, Georgia.

Now You Know What You Eat

By Valorie Fisher

Valorie Fisher dives deep into the science of what we eat and where ingredients come from by exploring what happens behind the scenes of favorite, everyday foods like pizza, honey, milk, maple syrup, vegetable soup, and more!

With the help of bold, eye-catching yet simple graphics, inquisitive minds will love discovering what makes popcorn pop, why bread rises, and how bees make honeycomb. With this book peppered with facts like how many eggs a hen lays in a year and how many gallons of sap it takes to make one gallon of syrup, readers will be fascinated by all the amazing things they never knew about the food they eat!

Now You Know What You Eat also includes a glossary, and a graphic about the food groups, as well as an introduction to vitamins and minerals. With a growing focus on STEM for this early age group, this book encourages readers to ask their own questions about the world around them, and to fall in love with discovering the answers!

Nick Seluk’s hilarious new nonfiction picture book all about your body’s very own computer — the brain!

The Brain is Kind of a Big Deal

By Nick Seluk

Have you ever thought about everything your brain does for you? It is always working to keep you alive and safe. (Plus it lets you think about funny stuff, too.) So why is the brain such a big deal? Because it makes you YOU, of course!

This funny and factual picture book from Heart and Brain creator Nick Seluk explains the science behind everything the brain helps you do: keeping your heart beating, telling you when you are sleepy, remembering stuff, and more. The brain is in charge of everything you do, every minute of every day for your entire life. That’s kind of a big deal.

Each spread features bite-sized text and comic-style art with sidebars sprinkled throughout. Anthropomorphized organs and body parts — recognizable from Nick Seluk’s New York Times bestselling book — help readers learn through funny jokes and comic panels. Funny, smart, and accessible, The Brain Is Kind of a Big Deal is a must-have!

Praise for The Sun Is Kind of a Big Deal:

Through her eyes, the moving story of a young Rwandan girl born with clubfeet.

Her Own Two Feet:
A Rwandan Girl’s Brave Fight to Walk

By Meredith Davis

Rebeka Uwitonze was born in Rwanda with curled and twisted feet, which meant she had to crawl or be carried to get around. At nine years old, she gets an offer that could change her life. A doctor in the US might be able to turn her feet. But it means leaving her own family behind and going to America on her own.

Her Own Two Feet tells Rebeka’s inspiring story through her eyes, with the help of one of her hosts. She travels from Rwanda to Austin, Texas, to join the Davis family, despite knowing almost no English. In the face of dozens of hospital visits and painful surgeries, Rebeka’s incredible bravery and joyful spirit carry her to the opportunity of a lifetime. A stunning debut about hope, perseverance, and what becomes possible when you take a risk.

Meredith Davis worked at an independent children’s bookstore and started the Austin chapter of the Society of Children’s Book Writers and Illustrators before earning her MFA in Writing for Children and Young Adults from Vermont College of Fine Arts. She lives and writes in Austin, Texas.

Rebeka Uwitonze goes to school in Kayonza, Rwanda, and spends her holidays at her home in Bugesera. She was born with arthrogryposis, a disease that caused her joints to contract, resulting in stiffness, clubfoot, and muscle atrophy in her arms. Her Own Two Feet is her debut book, in which she is able to share her inspiring story with the world. To find out more about Rebeka, go to www.meredithldavis.com/chance-comes-once.
An incredible teenage memoir from Sharon Robinson — set during the 1960’s American civil rights movement!

Child of the Dream: A Memoir of 1963

By Sharon Robinson

In January of 1963, Sharon Robinson turned 13 the night before George Wallace declared on national television “segregation now, segregation tomorrow, segregation forever” in his inauguration for governor of Alabama. That was the start of a year that would become one of the most pivotal years in the history of America.

As the daughter of Jackie Robinson, Sharon had incredible access to some of the most important events of the era, including her family hosting several fundraisers for Martin Luther King Jr. at their home in Connecticut, other civil rights heroes of the day calling Jackie Robinson for advice and support, and even attending the March on Washington for Freedom and Jobs.

But Sharon was also dealing with her own personal problems, like going through puberty, being one of the only black children in her wealthy Connecticut neighborhood, and figuring out her own role in the fight for equality.

This memoir follows Sharon as she goes through that incredible year of her life.

Bestselling author Da Chen weaves a deeply moving account about growing up during the Chinese Cultural Revolution.

Girl Under a Red Moon:
Growing Up During China’s Cultural Revolution

By Da Chen

In a small village called Yellow Stone, in southeastern China, Sisi is a model sister, daughter, and student. She brews tea for her grandfather in the morning, leads recitations at school as class monitor, and helps care for her youngest brother, Da.

But when students are selected during a school ceremony to join the prestigious Red Guard, Sisi is passed over. Worse, she is shamed for her family’s past – they are former landowners who have no place in the new Communist order. Her only escape is to find work at another school, bringing Da along with her. But the siblings find new threats in Bridge Town, too, and Sisi will face choices between family and nation, between safety and justice. With the tide of the Cultural Revolution rising, Sisi must decide if she will swim against the current, or get swept up in the wave.

Bestselling author Da Chen paints a vivid portrait of his older sister and a land thrust into turmoil during the tumultuous Chinese Cultural Revolution.

Da Chen’s life is a true immigrant success story. A native of China, Chen grew up in a tiny village without electricity or running water. He was a victim of communist political persecution during the Chinese Cultural Revolution but then went on to study at the Beijing Languages and Culture University. Da arrived in America at the age of twenty-three with only $30 and a bamboo flute, and attended the Columbia University School of Law on a full scholarship. Da is the New York Times bestselling author of Colors of the Mountain, a memoir; Sounds of the River; Brothers; the middle-grade novels Wandering Warrior and Girl Under a Red Moon; and several other titles. He lives in Southern California, with his family.
A gripping tale of the little-known Nazi plot to attack on American soil.

Nazi Saboteurs: Hitler’s Secret Attack on America

By Samantha Seiple

In 1942, amid a growing German threat, Nazi agents infiltrated the United States in hopes of destroying American infrastructure and sowing panic throughout the nation. Nazi Saboteurs tells the nail-biting tale of this daring plot, buried in history, for young readers for the first time. Black-and-white historical photos throughout paint a picture of a nation on edge, the FBI caught unawares, and the incredible capture of eight dangerous criminals.

A thrilling historical narrative for WWII buffs, reluctant readers, and adventure junkies.

Samantha Seiple is the author of Lincoln’s Spymaster: Allan Pinkerton, America’s First Private Eye, a 2015 Junior Library Guild Selection; Ghosts in the Fog: The Untold Story of Alaska’s WWII Invasion; and Byrd & Igloo: A Polar Adventure. She has worked as a competitive intelligence specialist for a Fortune 500 company, as a librarian, and as a production editor and copy editor. Her education includes degrees in English, journalism, and library and information science. She lives in Asheville, North Carolina.
