JEAN LITTLE

1932-2020

Jean was a giant of children's literature, loved and renowned in Canada and around the world. From her very first book, Mine for Keeps, about a girl with cerebral palsy, she became known for changing the way children with physical and psychological disabilities were portrayed in books for young readers — not as idealized, suffering characters waiting to be miraculously “fixed,” but as ordinary and imperfect children whose concerns and trials, while sometimes far from average, were universal.

Perhaps her most famous and best loved book, From Anna, was informed by her own childhood as a girl with a vision impairment. Like Anna, Jean never let anyone tell her what she couldn't do. She earned an Honours English degree from the University of Toronto, worked as a teacher of special needs children, and became a famous writer, instantly recognizable in the literary community with her guide dog, outspokenness and sharp wit.

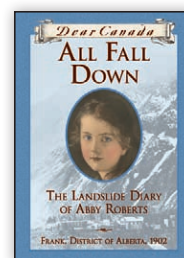

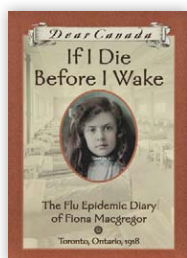

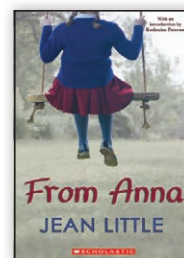

Jean was also a friend to Scholastic for more than twenty years, working with editor Sandy Bogart Johnston to create ten of her fifty published books along with half a dozen short stories. She helped launch the Dear Canada series, writing five of its bestselling novels, as well as other novels and picture books, including Pippin the Christmas Pig with Werner Zimmermann and the forthcoming Maya and the Monarch, to be illustrated by Gabrielle Grimard.

Her books have won numerous awards, and Jean herself was honoured with the Order of Canada, the Vicky Metcalf Award for Literature for Young People and the Matt Cohen Award: In Celebration of a Writing Life.

Jean died in Guelph, Ontario, where she lived for most of her life. She was 88. We will miss her brilliant writing, her ability to see the truth within her characters, and her willingness to follow them wherever they chose to take her — and us.

Teamwork

By Robert Munsch

Illustrated by Michael Martchenko

A new laugh-out-loud tale with heart from Canada's #1 storytelling team!

Matthew's parents think he should play on a sports team. How will he ever learn about teamwork if all he does is draw pictures all day?

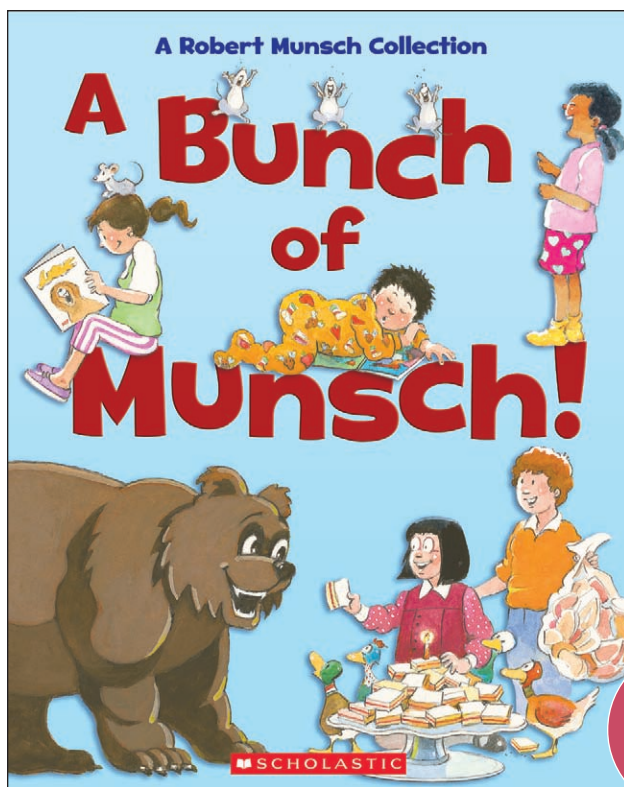

His mom signs him up for baseball. But out on the field, Matthew is too busy looking at stuff to catch the ball.

When a ball falls directly into his glove, he draws a picture on it, and throws it back. The players toss him another, and another, and another, and he draws on those too.

Soon, it's a toss-o-rama, as the teammates excitedly share their new art with each other, showcasing the most unique display of teamwork that the coach has ever seen!

With his trademark wit and whimsy, Robert Munsch hits another home run with this story that will remind children and parents that everyone brings their own set of special talents to a team!

Pig the Slob (Pig the Pug)

By Aaron Blabey

The world's greediest pug returns — and he's lazier than ever!

*Pig was a Pug
and I'm sorry to say he was shockingly lazy.
Such a shameful display . . .*

Pig, the world's greediest pug is back—and he won't get off the couch! Pig spends all day, every day in a horizontal position, binging on snacks and TV. Trevor tries to convince him to come out and play, but Pig won't budge!

Until one day when something happens to get Pig up off the couch once and for all . . .

Praise for the Pig the Pug Series:

"Blabey's jaunty rhymes will make for some fun read-alouds." (Pig the Pug) — Publishers Weekly

"The important lesson of playing fair and winning (and losing) gracefully is one that everyone should learn, and who better than Pig to teach it?" (Pig the Winner) — School Library Journal

"Clever rhymes and engaging illustrations combine to make this a fun way to convey the message that greed is bad. Highly recommended." (Pig the Elf) — School Library Journal

AARON BLABEY has written many well-loved, bestselling books for children, including the picture books Thelma the Unicorn, which is being adapted into an animated musical feature film for Netflix, Don't Call Me Bear! and Piranhas Don't Eat Bananas, the Pig the Pug series and the chapter book series The Bad Guys, whose movie adaptation is in development with Dreamworks. # Not Me

By Elise Gravel

Who made this mess?

When dad asks who left socks all over the place, a brother and sister insist that it was "Not Me."

Dad is quite sure the kids are not telling the truth, until he is introduced to the actual Not Me, a creature who in turn accuses Not True, who exposes the real sock bandit, the ever-complaining Not Fair!

Parents and caregivers will appreciate this highly relatable book that manages to slyly address the blaming and excuse-making that often happens, while focusing on the humour of the situation.

Praise for It's Not All Rainbows:

"Blending the timeless wisdom of Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day with a slight parody of current trends, this picture book is an excellent antidote to the cult of positive thinking. Slightly subversive and a lot of fun." — Kirkus Reviews

"Earnestly proving that even unicorns can have terrible, horrible, no good, very bad days . . . 'And,' von Innerebner concludes, 'that's okay.'" — Booklist

Why Can't We Be Bestie-corns?

By Jessika von Innerebner

Kevin the Unicorn loves being friends with everyone! But what happens when a friendship just doesn't fit?

Everyone knows that everyone loves unicorns. When it comes to making friends, they really know their stuff — especially Kevin! So when a newni-corn moves in next door, Kevin can't wait to meet his new best friend. They're going to do everything together!

But something's not quite right. Eric likes clam juice, stinky cheese and disco dancing. Kevin . . . not so much. He likes glitter soda, skateboarding and painting. They're having a problem finding their bestie-corn groove. What's a unicorn to do?

This delightful picture book sparkles with humour and serves as a reassuring reminder that you can be friendly, even if you're not best friends.

JESSIKA VON INNEREBNER is the author and illustrator of It's Not All Rainbows. She is also the illustrator of several chapter book series including Miranda and Maude, Escapades of Clint McCool and Ellie Ultra, and she has illustrated picture books, such as Grow Up, Ant-Man! A self-taught artist who landed her first illustration job as a teen, Jess has been colouring her way through studios like Disney and Atomic Cartoons ever since. She and her partner live in Kelowna, British Columbia. Visit her online at www.jessvoni.com.

Once I Was a Bear

By Irene Luxbacher

A beautiful and beguiling tale about a special bear trying to find his way in this world.

A young bear rejoices in the beauty of his woodland home, but when he wakes up from his winter sleep he has become a boy in a wilderness of tall buildings. It's a world run by clocks, where he must learn to fit in, and embark on the adventure of growing up.

This sensitively imagined story illuminates how difficult transitions can be, and that staying true to ourselves helps us discover how to be at home in the world.

Irene Luxbacher was inspired to write Once I Was a Bear upon discovering that her son, who is on the Autism spectrum, seems most at home in natural surroundings. "As a result," she says, "his dad and I started calling him 'our little bear.' His powerful imagination, abilities, and sensitivities enlighten me every day."

When Father Comes Home

By Sarah Jung

A heartwarming story about family, planting roots, and standing tall in the face of your fears.

June's father is like a goose — he flies away for long periods of time, which means that June doesn't get to see him very often. So he is happy when Father comes home from his journeys, and happier still when the family plants a tangerine tree together and Father tells June, "Next time I am here, this tree will be bigger, and so will you."

Caring for a growing sapling is a great responsibility and June takes it very seriously. When an accident happens and the tree topples over, June worries his family will change forever. But things that have fallen can be replanted, and sometimes facing our biggest fears reveals our greatest strengths.

Sarah Jung was born in Maine and grew up in Vancouver, Canada. She has a BFA in Illustration, Creative Writing and Book Arts from Maryland Institute College of Art. Sarah now resides in Baltimore, Maryland, as an illustrator and children's book creator alongside her friends and their little cat Remi. When Father Comes Home is Sarah's debut picture book. # Doggone Magic! (Go Away, Unicorn #2)

By Emily Mullock

Join Alice and her whimsical best friend, Unicorn, for their second all new adventure.

Alice's dog Max is used to leading a quiet life. But that was before Unicorn came along. Now every day brings a new magical misadventure . . . and Max is feeling a little left out.

Until unexpectedly, the family's old dog starts learning a few new tricks. All of a sudden, Max is growing horns, his fur is turning pink and blue, and he's even hovering in midair!

It's all fun and games . . . at first. But soon Max's magic starts getting out of control. Can Alice and Unicorn figure out what's really going on with that doggone dog?

Scribble

By Ruth Ohi

An irresistible invitation to explore creativity, imagination and friendship!

"Do you want to play?" said Scribble.

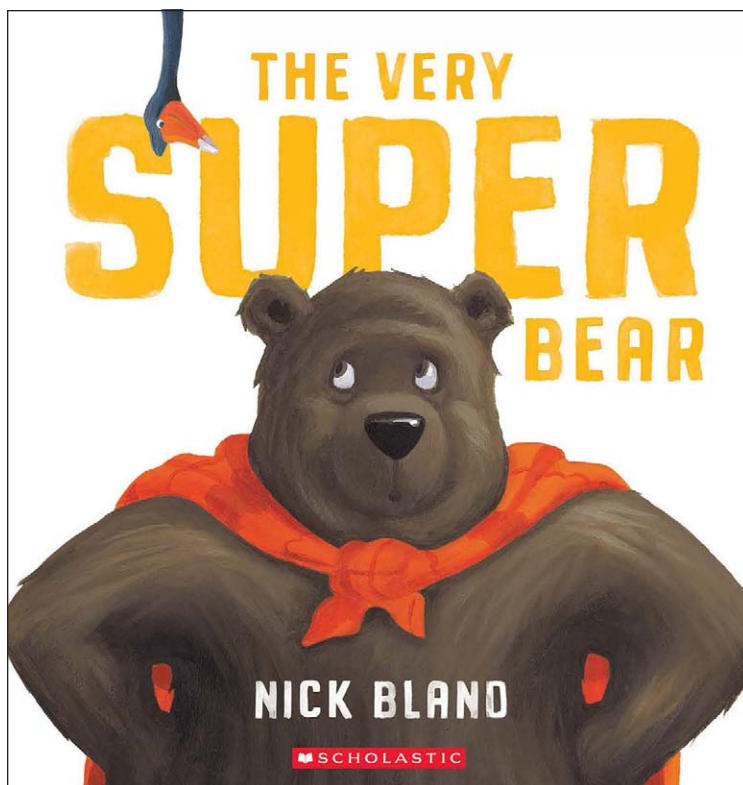

Circle loves to roll — around and around. Solid Square likes to sit still and strong. Triangle can celebrate all her good points, and always knows which direction to go. But when Scribble suddenly dashes through their ordered world — all messy lines and energy — Circle, Square and Triangle don't know what to think.

But turns out just a zig zag here and a wavy line there are all that's needed to stir imaginations, and soon the shapes find themselves working as a team, on a course for adventure!

Award-winning author and illustrator Ruth Ohi's energetic art shows young readers that anything is possible with a splash of colour and the most basic shapes. This wonderful picture book will spark creativity, and encourage young minds to identify and draw the Circle-Square-Triangle-Scribbles in their worlds too!

RUTH OHI has illustrated more than fifty children's books — several of which she has also written, including Fox and Squirrel, Fox and Squirrel Make a Friend, Shh! My Brother's Napping, and Scribble. Her books have been nominated for many prestigious awards, including the Marilyn Baillie Picture Book Award, Amelia Frances Howard-Gibbon Award, Mr. Christie's Award, Chocolate Lily, Shining Willow, Blue Spruce and the Governor General's Award. She lives with her family, and many backyard squirrels, in Toronto, Ontario. Visit her online at www.RuthOhi.com.

The Very Super Bear

By Nick Bland

Is it a bird? Is it a plane?
No, it's the Very Super Bear!

*In the Jingle Jangle Jungle, while Bear was chasing bees, he came across the strangest thing
beneath the shady trees.*

*It was such a lovely colour and just the perfect shape.
"Today's my lucky day!" said Bear.
"I've found myself . . .
. . . A CAPE."*

When Bear finds a cape in the Jingle Jangle Jungle, he soon discovers there are lots of animals in need of his help. Can The Very Super Bear and his sidekick, Bruce the Goose, save the jungle from the cranky yellow monster?

From bestselling author and illustrator Nick Bland comes this exciting new adventure with an environmental twist.

NICK BLAND always wanted to be a writer and a cartoonist, but it wasn't until he started working in a bookstore and rediscovered children's literature that he found a way to channel this ambition. Now he is the author of several bestselling picture books, including The Very Cranky Bear and its companion books; The Unscary Book and The Magnificent Tree. He currently lives in Darwin, Australia and works full-time as an author and illustrator.

Two Tough Trucks Get Lost!

By Corey Rosen Schwartz and Rebecca J. Gomez

Illustrated by Hilary Leung

Join these two tough trucks on their second picture book adventure!

Two tough trucks — the fastest of friends — love racing and chasing and zipping 'round bends. But when they chase and zip without paying attention . . . Mack and Rig get separated! Will they find their way back to each other, and to their parents?

In this sequel to Two Tough Trucks, we join preschool vehicles on an action-packed playdate that goes a little off the rails. Kids will love imagining themselves as Mack and Rig zipping around illustrator Hilary Leung's beautiful landscapes, and parents will enjoy reading the easy, bouncing rhymes.

Get ready to vroom and zoom your way to fun and friendship with these two lovable and tough trucks!

Praise for Two Tough Trucks:

"Looks like the first-day-of-school genre just got a high-octane upgrade." — Kirkus Reviews

Hockey Super Six: The Puck Drops Here

By Kevin Sylvester

A special group of kids must save the world with — what else? — HOCKEY!

There are people out there, nasty mean greedy people, who want to rule the Earth. People such as evil scientist (and former mediocre goalie) Clarence Crosscheck. Only one thing is stopping them . . . hockey.

This hilarious new high-action series from Kevin Sylvester pits six ordinary kids with super hockey skills against the forces of evil — specifically, the nefarious wannabe genius, Clarence Crosscheck.

In The Puck Drops Here, Jenny, Benny, Mo, Starlight, DJ and Karl need to outmaneuver Crosscheck and his army of mammoth mutant ice squids before Crosscheck turns his giant freeze ray on the world. The entire planet is at risk! Get ready for high-stakes ice battles, non-stop hijinks and never-before-seen hockey action (it's kids vs squids)!

With fast-paced text and illustrations throughout, this series will grip sports fans and funny story lovers alike. Will the kids win the day? You'll have to read the books to find out . . .

Jenny scrunched up her face at the ominous orange paint. "Karl, this place looks TOTALLY OFF-LIMITS."

Karl smiled. "Relax. You know my mom is the Prime Minister, right?"

The others nodded.

"Well. She says it's okay."

"I find that very hard to believe," Benny said with one eyebrow — his left — clearly raised. Jenny automatically raised her right eyebrow.

"REALLY? THEN HOW DID I GET THE KEY?"

Karl held up a golden key, with small computer chips stuck on the sides.

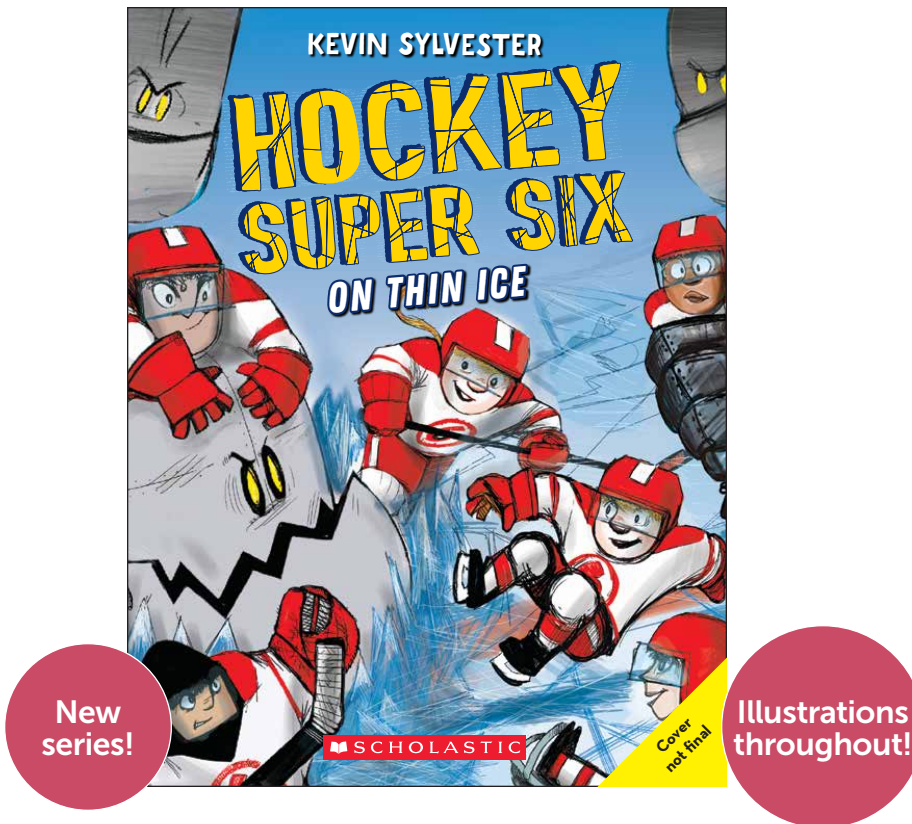

How did he get the key?

Karl had, well, "borrowed" the key from his mother.

"I'm outta here," Mo said, turning back toward the elevator.

Hockey Super Six: On Thin Ice

By Kevin Sylvester

Will the Hockey Super Six thwart their enemy's plans for world domination in book two of this action-packed series?

In the second book pitting six ordinary kids with super hockey skills against the forces of evil, Jenny, Benny, Mo, Starlight, DJ and Karl desperately need to stay out of Crosscheck's grasp!

Their last run-in revealed to evil scientist (and former mediocre goalie) Clarence Crosscheck the scope of some of their secret powers — powers he can use in his never-ending quest for world domination. Hard at work on a robot army to do his bidding, Crosscheck underestimates how strong the Super Six can be when they work together as a team.

Get ready for high-stakes ice battles, non-stop hijinks and never-before-seen hockey action (it's kids vs robots, and some giant lizards too)!

Graphic
Novel

Planet Hockey: First Star of the Game

By J. Torres and Tim Levins

Canada's favourite sport gets intergalactic treatment in this action-packed graphic novel!

Isaac may be the G.O.A.T (Greatest Of All Time) in his hockey video game, but after a championship-game-losing accident, he's an epic fail on actual ice.

Unfortunately, the Pods' robot scout from Planet Galaxia doesn't know this, and beams him up and away to be the new superstar of their terrible team—the worst in the GHL (Galaxian Hockey League). Fortunately for the Pods, Isaac's new neighbour Lily is along for the ride — and she just might be the best goalie this side of the Milky Way.

But the interstellar game isn't quite like hockey on Earth. The stakes are higher. Opposing players are shaped like trees, or electrified, or built like actual boulders. And even if Isaac is able to whip the octopus-like Pods into shape, Emperor Mad Maroon, the ruler of Galaxia, might not release the Earthlings. Can Isaac score a win in the Galaxia Championship Tournament . . . and get back to home ice?

J. TORRES is a Filipino Canadian writer perhaps best known for his work on the Shuster Award winning Teen Titans Go comic book. He has written characters from A (Archies) to Z (The Mighty Zodiac), plus Batman, Black Panther, Rugrats, Simpsons, WALL-E, Wonder Woman, the X-Men and many more in between. His graphic novels include the Eisner Award listed Alison Dare, Junior Library Guild selection Bigfoot Boy, Parents Choice Award winning Brobots, Junior Library Guild selection How to Spot a Sasquatch, and the YALSA listed Lola: A Ghost Story. He lives just outside of "Hogtown" with his wife and two sons. Visit him online at www.jtorrescomics.com.

TIM LEVINS studied Fine Art and Classical Animation before breaking into the comic book business in the mid-1990s. Tim is best known for his work on the Eisner Award-winning DC Comics series Batman: Gotham Adventures. Over the years, he has illustrated many titles for DC, Marvel Comics, and Archie Comics, and has drawn several children's books published by Capstone Press. Tim enjoys life in Midland, Ontario, with his wife, son, and two dogs.

The Lunch Club: It Came from the Basement

By Dom Pelletier

Something strange is going on at school . . .
can the Lunch Club save the student body from supernatural forces?

It's the first day at a new school for unicorn-loving, practical Tia. It's hard to be the new kid. Lunching alone in an obscure club room, she finally finds an unlikely friend in Leo, who loves being funny and sometimes forgets to think before he jokes.

Tia and Leo notice that the school janitor is acting weird. He's been picking through the trash and hoarding banana peels in the creepy school basement. And he's kind of acting like a zombie. Things go from weird to worse when the kids — with the help of the advisor to the school's least popular club— discover what's behind it: a huge mustachioed space monster who plans to take over the world!

Publishing Schedule
Book 2 is scheduled for Summer 2021
Book 3 is scheduled for Fall 2021

DOM — a.k.a Dominique — PELLETIER started drawing cartoons at a young age and has never put his crayons down, studying graphic communications at Laval University in Quebec City. A lover of the great outdoors, he has planted trees and travelled the world before beginning work as a video game designer. After a fateful meeting at the Quebec Book Fair, Dom teamed up with Éditions Scholastic on their bestselling joke book series. Fifty very funny books later, he has translated his joke book success into this hilarious graphic novel series. He lives with his wife in Saint-Liboire, Quebec.

Bunbun & Bonbon: Fancy Friends

By Jess Keating

A lonely bunny named Bunbun befriends a fancy candy named Bonbon, in this adorable graphic novel for emerging readers!

Bunbun had it all: a delightful Bunbun nose, a winning Bunbun smile, a ridiculously cute Bunbun tail, and not one, but two adorable Bunbun ears. But Bunbun didn't have a friend — until she met Bonbon.

Learning how to be fancy and eating donuts for lunch are two of the duo's many adventures in this irresistible young graphic novel by acclaimed author and illustrator Jess Keating. Hop hop hooray!

As a zoologist and author, JESS KEATING has been sprayed by skunks, bitten by crocodiles, and fallen victim to the dreaded paper cut. Her books include the Elements of Genius middle-grade series, the acclaimed My Life Is a Zoo middle-grade trilogy, and award-winning picture books like Shark Lady and Pink Is for Blobfish. Her most recent work is the non-fiction picture book Eat Your Rocks, Croc! Jess lives in Mississauga, Ontario, where she loves hiking, nerdy documentaries, and writing books for curious and adventurous kids. ## Stolen Girl

By Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch

An enthralling story of a Ukrainian girl who was kidnapped as a child to be raised by a Nazi family.

Nadia is haunted by World War II. Her memories of the war are messy, coming back to her in pieces and flashes she can't control. Though her adoptive mother says they are safe now, Nadia's flashbacks keep coming.

Sometimes she remembers running, hunger, and isolation. But other times she remembers living with a German family, and attending big rallies where she was praised for her light hair and blue eyes. The puzzle pieces don't quite fit together, and Nadia is scared by what might be true. Could she have been raised by Nazis? Were they her real family? What part did she play in the war?

What Nadia finally discovers about her own history will shock her. But only when she understands the past can she truly face her future.

Inspired by startling true events, Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch delivers a gripping and poignant story of one girl's determination to uncover her truth.

Trapped in Hitler's Web

By Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch

A gripping companion novel to the award-winning Don't Tell the Enemy.

In the grip of WWII, Maria realizes that her occupied Ukrainian town is no longer safe for her friend Nathan, because he is Jewish. Maria agrees to flee with him — into the heart of the Reich in Austria. They hope that by working on a farm there with other foreign workers, they can escape the dangers behind them and hide in plain sight.

Of course, danger follows them, and Maria and Nathan will have to fight, together, to escape Hitler's web. But what will happen if they're separated?

Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch delivers another gripping story of war, picking up the storyline of Krystia's younger sister, Maria, after they part ways in Don't Tell the Enemy.

Praise for Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch:

"A gripping exploration of war-induced trauma, identity, and transformation." (Stolen Girl) — Kirkus Reviews

"Inspired by real, historical accounts, this is a powerful, harrowing story of transformation." (Making Bombs for Hitler) — Booklist

"The subject matter is powerful and grows occasionally quite intense. A page-turning window into a complex piece of World War II history." (The War Below) — Kirkus Reviews

MARSHA FORCHUK SKRYPUCH is one of Canada's most respected authors of historical fiction for young people and the author of more than a dozen books, including Dear Canada: Prisoners in the Promised Land, Stolen Child, Making Bombs for Hitler, and Don't Tell the Enemy. She has won many awards for her work. Much of Marsha's writing focuses on stories from her Ukrainian heritage, and she has been presented with the Order of Princess Olha by the President of Ukraine and named a Canadian Ukrainian Woman of Distinction. Marsha lives in Brantford, Ontario. Visit her online at www.calla.com.

Caster

By Elsie Chapman

An exhilarating YA fantasy about a secret underground magic fighting tournament.

If the magic doesn't kill her, the truth just might.

Aza Wu knows that real magic is dangerous and illegal. After all, casting killed her sister, Shire. As with all magic, everything comes at a price. Her sister had been casting for money to pay off Saint Willow, the gang leader that oversees her sector of Lotusland. If you want to operate a business there, you have to pay your tribute. And now with Shire dead, Aza must step in to save the legacy of Wu Teas, the teahouse that has been in her family for centuries.

When Aza comes across a secret invitation, she decides she doesn't have much else to lose. She quickly realizes that she's entered herself into an underground casting tournament, and the stakes couldn't be higher. Real magic, real consequences.

As Aza's dangerous web of lies continues to grow, she is caught between trying to find a way out and trapping herself permanently.

Spell Starter (A Caster Novel)

By Elsie Chapman

The magical, action-packed sequel to Caster!

Yes, Aza Wu now has magic back. But like all things in her life, it has come at a great cost.

After the tournament, Aza is able to pay off her parents' debt to Saint Willow. Unfortunately, the cost of the gathering spell she used to strip Finch of his magic has put her permanently in the employ of the gang leader. Aza has been doing little errands using real magic — collecting debts, putting the squeeze on new businesses in the district. But that had never been the plan. Saint Willow is nothing if not ambitious and having Aza as a fighter is much more lucrative than as a fixer. Especially if she can control the outcome.

Aza is going to have to put it all on the line again to get out of this situation!

ELSIE CHAPMAN grew up in Prince George, British Columbia, and has a degree in English literature from the University of British Columbia. PAUL ROMANUK worked his way from calling games in front of his television with the sound turned down as a child to being a veteran national sportscaster. He was the lead hockey play-by-play voice at The Sports Network for more than a decade and worked as a reporter and host on Sportscentre. Aside from calling hundreds of hockey games, Paul has covered the Summer Olympics, Winter Olympics, Pan Am Games, Asian Games and Soccer World Cup. His work as a reporter and magazine writer has taken him all over the world and back. Paul lives in Toronto, Ontario.

Amazing Hockey Stories: Mitch Marner

By Lorna Schultz Nicholson

Illustrated by D. A. Bishop

Meet Mitch Marner, the superstar playmaker of the Toronto Maple Leafs!

In only a few short years with his beloved Maple Leafs, Mitch Marner has racked up record-setting points and made countless plays happen for his linemates. And his OHL career is legendary. Mitch won the Red Tilson Trophy, the Wayne Gretzky 99 Award, the Ed Chynoweth Trophy and was CHL Player of the Year, as well as leading his team to a Memorial Cup victory.

But getting to the NHL wasn't always a certainty for Mitch. Coming up through youth hockey he was considered small — maybe too small to make it in the NHL. But Mitch had heart and never gave up. Off the ice, he's also shown where that heart is, starting an Invitational All Star event in support of children's charities and community hockey.

This full colour easy-to-read biography is packed with photos and has sixteen pages of hockey action comic sequences. It's sure to be a favourite read with his legions of young fans!
