Just One Goal!

Ciara is tired of hauling her hockey gear across town to play on the rink. It makes no sense — there's a perfectly good frozen river in her own backyard! But her dad says it's too bumpy and her older sisters say THEY had to walk across town to play. But Ciara takes things into her own hands and with a little help from the neighbourhood, she gets her rink. And now her team will finally win a game on their own ice!

Brady Brady et le grand nettoyage

Brady Brady and the Cleanup Hitters

Spring has sprung and Brady can't wait to grab his glove and throw his first pitch of the season. But when he and his classmates hit the playing field at recess, they find it is covered in trash. It looks more like a dump than a diamond! Brady is disappointed not to be able to play. Then Brady's mother points out that the garbage is a serious issue for the plants and animals. Brady decides it's time for action! Can Brady convince his class it's time for a spring cleanup?

MARY SHAW developed Brady Brady while trying to get her hockey-obsessed five year-old son to read. The bestselling series is a true Canadian success story. Mary lives in Kanata, Ontario.

CHUCK TEMPLE began his career at the age of 18 when his first comic strip went into syndication. He is the illustrator of the bestselling Brady Brady series and also created The Wealthy Barber Calendar with David Chilton, which has sold over 2.5 million copies.

Si je n'étais pas ton papa

If I Didn't Have You

A father and son discuss the variety of outlandish items they might have if not for the other in this funny and heartfelt look at the appreciation we have for our families.

There are tons of things a parent or child could have, if they didn't have each other. A dad may be able to have a sleek sports car, and a son could have candy for every meal. But if to have those things, they wouldn't have each other... well, they'd rather have their family instead.

Kids and parents alike will find the humour in all the outlandish things they could have, but also the tenderness of knowing they have exactly what they need with each other.

ALAN KATZ has been a print and television comedy writer for more than twenty years. In addition to being a multiple Emmy nominee for his work on The Rosie O'Donnell Show and Disney's Raw Toonage, he has written for children's programming on Nickelodeon, ABC Television, Warner Brothers Animation's Taz-Mania, and many others. Alan lives in Weston, Connecticut with his family.

CHRIS ROBERTSON has worked as an illustrator for magazines and newspapers and as a storyboard director for Nickelodeon Animation Studio. He lives in Pasadena, California with his family.

Un paresseux au Zoom

Sloth At the Zoom

One day, a sloth accidentally gets delivered to the Zoom! She was supposed to be dropped off at the Zzzzzoo, a much more laid-back, slow-paced place. She had been looking forward to long, languorous naps while the sun gently warmed her belly. But at the Zoom, the zebras gallop so fast they leave their stripes in puddles. The monkeys climb so fast they forget to stop at the treetops. And the parrots fly so fast their tails draw rainbows across the sky.

When the sloth tries to make friends, nobody has any time — until the sloth meets a creature who's a little more her speed, and everyone stops to notice. This is a surprising, delightful, and funny picture book about slowing down to enjoy the little things and making time for what matters.

HELAINE BECKER is an award-winning writer of books for children. She has written over 80 books, including Worms for Breakfast and the best-selling picture book A Porcupine in a Pine Tree. Helaine lives in Toronto, Ontario, where she tends to move either way too fast (cheetah!) or not at all (sloth).

ORBIE is a children's book illustrator and graphic novel creator. She is known for her art surrounding themes of birth and motherhood. She has illustrated many picture books including La petite truie, le vélo et la lune and Les aventures de Sven le terrible. She lives in Cap d'Espoir, Quebec.

The Worst Book Ever

Elise Gravel wants to write a totally drab book; her characters want to let loose. Who's gonna win?

Don't take the title as a metaphor: it really is the worst book ever. Governor General Literary Award winning children's book author and illustrator Elise Gravel takes readers on an unexpected journey through the world's most boring book. The story's characters and readers alike quickly become annoyed by the author's bland imagination and rebel against her tired tropes and stale character choices, spouting sass in an attempt to get her attention and steer the narrative in a more interesting direction. After all, you don't even have to buy the book, but the characters? They're stuck in there for an eternity, and they're going to do their best to make the most of it, or at least have a little fun where they can.

As the charming and bizarre true nature of the characters overpowers the dry attributes given to them by the author, this once blasé story quickly picks up speed, transforming into something much more unique than originally promised. With Gravel's signature goofy characters behind the wheel, no silly twist or rude bodily function is off the table!

ELISE GRAVEL has won a Governor General Award for illustration, two Applied Arts Awards and a Grafika award. She was also short-listed for Mr. Christie's Book Award and the Prix jeunesse des libraires du Québec. She has written and illustrated several books for children in both French and English. Elise lives in Montreal.

Faire des amis

Making Friends

Sixth grade was SO much easier for Dany. All her friends were in the same class and she knew what to expect from her life. But now that she's in seventh grade, she's in a new middle school, her friends are in different classes and forming new cliques, and she is completely lost.

When Dany inherits a magical sketchbook from her eccentric great aunt Elma, she draws Madison, an ideal best friend that springs to life right off the page! But even when you create a best friend, it's not easy navigating the ups and downs of relationships, and before long Dany and Madison are not exactly seeing eye-to-eye.

To make matters worse, Dany has drawn the head of her favourite (and totally misunderstood) cartoon villain, Prince Neptune. He's also come to life and is giving her terrible advice about how to make people like her. When she rejects him and he goes on a rampage during a school pep rally, Dany and Madison have to set aside their differences to stop him!

KRISTEN GUDSNUK is the creator of the comic series Henchgirl, and the illustrator of the book series VIP by Jen Calonita. In her spare time she performs with the band Sally. Kristen learned everything she knows about art and life from Sailor Moon, X-Men, and Animorphs. She lives in New York City with her supportive dog and loyal boyfriend.

Ne ferme pas les yeux!

Don't Blink!

This interactive book may seem to be on your side, reluctant sleeper, but it's truly a bedtime book in disguise!

Here's how it works: if you can avoid getting to the end of this book, you can avoid bedtime, simple as that. (It's a pretty sweet deal, actually.) But each time you blink, you have to turn a page. Those are just the rules. So whatever you do, DON'T BLINK!

From New York Times bestselling author and illustrator Amy Krouse Rosenthal and David Roberts comes a playful, super-duper interactive bedtime story, narrated by a cheeky stuffed owl. Kids love a challenge, and you can bet they'll do their darndest to rise to the one set out in Ne ferme pas les yeux... especially when bedtime is on the line!

AMY KROUSE ROSENTHAL (1965-2017) was a prolific writer, speaker, film maker, and radio show host. She has penned six Éditions Scholastic titles, including Point d'exclamation, Une amie pour Licorne and Souffles de souhaits. Amy lost her battle to cancer in March 2017.

DAVID ROBERTS was born in Liverpool, England. He is the illustrator of many books for children, including Iggy Peck, Architect; Ada Twist, Scientist; and Rosie Revere, Engineer. He now lives in London.

★ PRAISE

La moustache de Mo

A wonderfully silly book about style and individuality, sure to grow on readers who don't have facial hair — and even those who do!

Réfugié n'est pas mon nom

My Name is Not Refugee

A young boy discusses the journey he is about to make with his mother. They will leave their town, she explains, and it will be sad but also a little bit exciting. They will have to say goodbye to friends and loved ones, and that will be difficult. They will have to walk and walk and walk, and although they will see many new and interesting things, it will be difficult at times too.

A touching, timely, and tender exploration of refuge and migration for the youngest readers, this picture book offers a moving insight into the real journeys being made by children today.

KATE MILNER studied Illustration at Central St Martin's before completing the MA in Children's Book Illustration at Anglia Ruskin University. Her work has been published in magazines and her illustrations and prints have been shown in London galleries and national touring exhibitions. Kate won the V&A Student Illustration Award in 2016, UK's most prestigious annual illustration competition recognizing the very best in book, editorial, and student illustration.

The journey through the rift becomes even rockier as the survivors are forced to take to the water, crossing a vast lake on improvised boats.

But halfway across, they discover something is tracking them from deep beneath the surface: a colossal monster that's stranger — and larger — than anything they've encountered yet.

New York Times bestselling author and National Book Award winner M.T. Anderson helps this heart-pounding voyage in the epic survival series begun by Scott Westerfeld.

M.T. ANDERSON is an American writer of children's books that range from picture books to young adult novels. He won the National Book Award for Young People's Literature in 2006 for The Pox Party, the first book in the The Astonishing Life of Octavian Nothing series. Demain, peut-être...

Maybe Tomorrow?

Elba has a black block. She's been dragging it around for a long time. Norris dances everywhere he goes, even uphill. He is always surrounded by a happy cloud of butterflies. Can Norris and his butterflies lighten Elba's load and convince her to join them on a trip to the ocean?

This tender exploration of loss uses a block as a metaphor for grief and illuminates how kindness and friendship can lift our spirits, help us heal, and see us through many tomorrows. It will resonate with anyone who has experienced loss, from the death of a loved one or a pet, to a friend moving away, or the transition to a new home or family situation.

CHARLOTTE AGELL was born in Norsjo, Sweden, and grew up in Montreal, Canada. She is the mother of two grown children and works as a teacher in Saco, Maine. She is the author and illustrator of several picture books, chapter books, and young adult fiction published in Canada and abroad.

ANA RAMÍREZ is a visual artist who worked as an animator on Pixar's Academy Award-winning Coco, and illustrated the companion picture book Coco: Miguel and the Grand Harmony. Ana grew up in Guanajuato, Mexico, and lives in Oakland, California.

Chère fille,

Dear Girl,

Chère fille, is a remarkable love letter written for the special girl in your life; a gentle reminder that she's powerful, strong, and holds a valuable place in the world.

Through Amy and Paris's charming text and Holly Hatam's stunning illustrations, any girl reading this book will feel she's great just the way she is — whether she enjoys jumping in a muddy puddle, has a face full of freckles, or dances on table tops. A perfect gift for all occasions.

AMY KROUSE ROSENTHAL was a prolific writer, speaker, film maker, and radio show host. She has penned six Éditions Scholastic titles, including Point d'exclamation, Une amie pour Licorne and Souffles de souhaits. Amy lost her battle to cancer in March 2017.

PARIS ROSENTHAL attends Quest University, a liberal arts school near Vancouver in British Columbia. She was the first woman in her high school to play on the men's basketball team, and she started a cancer support group at her college. Her favourite project was working on the book Chère fille, with her mother.

HOLLY HATAM is a girl who sometimes likes to wear something pink and sparkly and sometimes dons a cape and fights dragons. She is the illustrator of Chère fille, and What Matters. Holly lives in Whitby, Ontario.

★ PRAISE

“Abundantly necessary. Holly Hatam's simple, stark style and limited palette reflect the essential and basic nature of equality, conveying that Chère fille, can be any girl.” ~ The New York Times

“Sure to be a hit for mothers and daughters of all ages for its warm, supportive message.” ~ Booklist

Un jour, tu découvriras...

The Day You Begin

There are many reasons to feel different. Maybe it's how you look or talk, or where you're from; maybe it's what you eat, or something just as random. It's not easy to take those first steps into a place where nobody really knows you yet, but somehow you do it.

Jacqueline Woodson's lyrical text and Rafael López's dazzling art reminds us that we all feel like outsiders sometimes — and how brave it is that we go forth anyway. And that sometimes, when we reach out and begin to share our stories, others will be happy to meet us halfway.

JACQUELINE WOODSON is the 2018-2019 National Ambassador for Young People's Literature and received the 2018 Astrid Lindgren Memorial Award and the 2018 Children's Literature Legacy Award. She is the 2014 National Book Award winner for her New York Times bestselling memoir Brown Girl Dreaming. Her books include The Other Side, Each Kindness, Coming On Home Soon, Feathers, and Miracle's Boys. Jacqueline lives with her family in Brooklyn, New York.

RAFAEL LÓPEZ won Pura Belpré medals for Drum Dream Girl and Book Fiesta. His work has been featured in Communication Arts, American Illustration Annual, Graphic Design USA and Huffington Post. He's a founder of San Diego's Urban Art Trail movement and he created official posters for the 2008 and 2012 Obama-Biden campaigns. Rafael lives and works in downtown San Diego and in San Miguel de Allende, Mexico.

★ PRAISE

“Woodson and López offer a needed message of comfort to preschool and early elementary students.” ~ Shelf Awareness

“A beautiful and inclusive story that encourages children to find the beauty in their own lives and share it with the world...”

Voici Elsie MacGill

Elsie MacGill

In this amazing addition to the Biographie en images series, young Canadians will learn about the trailblazing Elsie MacGill, whose work on the Canadian-made Hawker Hurricane fighter helped the Allied forces to victory in World War II.

Elsie was born in 1905 to a mother who was a feminist pioneer in her own right. Elsie grew up fully expecting to follow her dreams. And she did. Elsie was the first woman to graduate from the University of Toronto's electrical engineering program. Elsie went on to earn a master's in aeronautical engineering — but contracted polio the day before her convocation. She battled back, and a storied engineering career followed, including being in charge of the tooling and manufacture of the famous Hawker Hurricane. Later in life she was a champion of women's rights and her work shaped many of the protections we now enjoy.

Written by award-winning author Elizabeth MacLeod, this portrait of Elsie MacGill is the first ever written for younger readers.

ELIZABETH MACLEOD is the author of many notable Canadian non-fiction titles including Bunny, cheval de guerre, Canada en vedette (co-authored with Frieda Wishinsky), as well as many critically acclaimed biographies. She lives in Toronto, Ontario.

MIKE DEAS is an author-illustrator of graphic novels, most recently Dalen and Gole: Scandal in Port Angus. His love for illustrative storytelling comes from an early love of reading and drawing while growing up on Saltspring Island, British Columbia.

La sorcière secrète

The Hidden Witch

Aster and his family are adjusting to his unconventional talent for witchery; unlike the other boys in his family, he isn't a shapeshifter. He's taking classes with his grandmother and helping to keep an eye on his great-uncle, whose corrupted magic wreaked havoc on the family.

Meanwhile, Aster's friend from the non-magical part of town, Charlie, is having problems of her own — a curse has tried to attach itself to her. She runs to Aster and escapes it, but now the friends must find the source of the curse before more people — non-magical and magical alike — get hurt.

MOLLY KNOX OSTERTAG grew up in the forests of upstate New York, where she spent the first half of her childhood reading about fantastical adventures and the second half acting them out. She currently lives in California and graduated in 2014 from the School of Visual Arts, where she studied cartooning and illustration. La sorcière secrète is her second graphic novel.

★ PRAISE FOR LE GARÇON SORCIÈRE

Nibi a soif, très soif

Nibi's Water Song

Nibi is the Anishinaabemowin word for water. In Nibi's Water Song, Nibi is an Indigenous girl on the search for clean water to drink. Though she is faced with repeated obstacles, Nibi's joyful and determined energy become a catalyst for change and action as her community and, in widening circles, the country and government, rally around her to make clean drinking water available for all. There is a strong underlying message that even when a problem seems too large to face, every bit that everyone does helps. And inaction is not an option.

Sunshine Tenasco, an Anishinabeg activist for clean water, has an amazing optimistic spirit that shines through her writing. The hopeful tone and lyrical read-aloud quality of this gentle allegorical tale open the door to conversations and action aimed at young children, whether they are on a reserve that does not have clean water or they are living with access to clean water. Chief Lady Bird's stunning, original artwork carries through the themes of strength, hope, and resilience in an incredible collaboration of talent.

SUNSHINE TENASCO is Anishinabeg, from Kitigan Zibi Anishinabeg, Quebec. She is a clean water activist. Sunshine's website, www.herbraids.com, sells the beaded pendants Sunshine makes, with a portion of the profits going to the David Suzuki Blue Dot campaign, which supports the right to a clean environment. Nibi a soif, très soif is her first book.

CHIEF LADY BIRD is a Chippewa and Potawatomi artist from Rama First Nation and Moosedeer Point First Nation, who is currently based in Toronto. She graduated from OCAD University in 2015 with a BFA in Drawing and Painting and a minor in Indigenous Visual Culture. Through her art practice, Chief Lady Bird uses street art, community-based workshops, digital illustration and mixed media work to challenge the lens that Indigenous people are often viewed through. She was the recipient of the Donna McLean Award for Portraiture and Life Study in 2015 and is known across Turtle Island for her murals.
