Meet Terry Fox (Scholastic Canada Biography)

By Elizabeth MacLeod

Illustrated by Mike Deas

Terry Fox's remarkable story, just in time to mark the 40th anniversary of the Marathon of Hope!

The award-winning Scholastic Canada Biography series highlights the lives of remarkable Canadians whose achievements have inspired and changed the lives of those that followed them.

In Meet Terry Fox, the legendary story of how Terry Fox came to run the Marathon of Hope is chronicled: his love of sports as a child and teenager; his devastating bone cancer diagnosis; the hospital stay that inspired him to do something to raise awareness about this disease; the poignant moment he dipped his artificial leg in the waters of St. John's, Newfoundland; the heartbreaking moment he ended his run; and the legacy that has endured these past forty years.

Written by award-winning author Elizabeth MacLeod, this portrait of Terry Fox couples simple yet compelling writing with full-colour, comic-flavoured illustrations by Mike Deas that help bring this unforgettable story to life. This book was created in cooperation with Terry Fox's family.

ELIZABETH MACLEOD is the author of many Canadian nonfiction books, including the Canada Close Up series titles Canadian Government, Canada's Trees and Canadian Money in addition to the award-winning Scholastic Canada Biography series and Canada Year-By-Year. She lives in Toronto, Ontario and enjoys reading, swimming, theatre, botany and tap dancing.

MIKE DEAS is an author/illustrator of graphic novels, most recently Tank and Fizz and the Case of the Tentacle Terror. He is the illustrator of the Graphic Guide Adventure series. His love for illustrative storytelling comes from an early love of reading and drawing while growing up on Saltspring Island, British Columbia. Visit him online at www.deasillustration.com.

I Am Canada: A Celebration

By Heather Patterson

Illustrated by 13 of Canada's finest illustrators

A board book edition of this beautiful picture book with art by Canada's finest illustrators!

What is being a Canadian kid all about?

Simple text describes the ample space available to our children in this country, and the freedom they have to grow and dream and share. With artwork from 13 Canadian illustrators, each page is a celebration and a reminder of the infinite variety of our home land.

Heather Patterson's free verse poem I Am Canada, originally published in 1996, speaks to a new generation in this perfect toddler gift. Bright illustrations by some of Canada's best children's book creators provide a view of different art styles, highlighting Canada's diversity in a very special way.

HEATHER PATTERSON is the author of Thanks for Thanksgiving, Pioneer Christmas Crafts, A Poppy Is to Remember and Canada From Above, all published by Scholastic Canada, Ltd. A former elementary school teacher and children's book editor, Heather is a fiercely proud Canadian. She lives in Etobicoke, Ontario.

MUST-HAVE MUNSCH
New Look!

Alligator Baby

By Robert Munsch

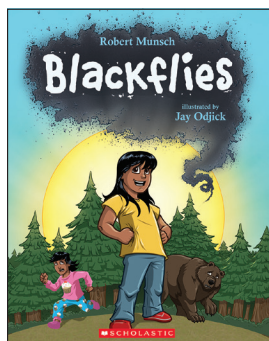

Illustrated by Michael Martchenko

A classic Munsch tale about a new baby in the family — with a zany twist, of course!

One night Kristen's mom goes off to the hospital to have a baby. But Dad gets lost on the way, and ends up at the zoo instead. When they get home, Kristen takes one look at the baby and says, "That's not my baby brother — it's an alligator!" So the parents go off to the zoo to find their real baby. They bring back a baby seal, a baby gorilla — but no people baby. So Kristen has to go off to the zoo and fix things herself . . .

This was Robert Munsch's first book with Scholastic Canada — now reissued with a bright new cover design!

Boo!

By Robert Munsch

Illustrated by Michael Martchenko

This Halloween, Lance is going to paint his face and make it really, really scary!

On Halloween, Lance decides that he is going to paint his face instead of dressing up. He tries three times until he gets it just right — scary enough that his father falls over when he sees it. Then he goes out trick-or-treating. He goes to two houses, where the adults fall over and Lance takes all the candy in the house. Then he gets a policeman to take him home. The cop dares him to show his face, and when Lance does, he does not fall over — but he runs away, terrified!

When a teenager comes to Lance's house, he has an even bigger bag of candy than Lance's. He has painted a scary face, too — but Lance's is still scarier, and the teenager runs off, leaving Lance with enough candy to last until . . . next Halloween!

This seasonal favourite is now reissued with bright new cover art!

Eat Your Rocks, Croc!:

Dr. Glider's Advice for Troubled Animals

By Jess Keating

Illustrated by Pete Oswald

When animals have problems, they call on Dr. Sugar Glider to help!

Help me, Dr. Glider. My stomach is killing me!

I eat all the same food as my family, but I'm the only one that feels sick.

What's wrong with me?

Dr. Sugar Glider travels around the world to help animals (and, on occasion, plants!) with all sorts of problems. Whether it's a crocodile with a sick stomach, a creeped-out krill, a stressed meerkat, or a male praying mantis trying to date, Dr. Glider is ready to offer advice!

From powerhouse author Jess Keating (Pink Is for Blobfish) and New York Times bestselling illustrator Pete Oswald (The Bad Seed), Eat Your Rocks, Croc! features hilarious stories, charming illustrations, and awesome true facts that will leave young readers enthralled by the real world of the animal kingdom. Robust back matter, featuring a glossary and a list of the featured creatures, makes this the perfect fit for the school curriculum.

As a zoologist and author, Jess Keating has been sprayed by skunks, bitten by crocodiles, and victim of the dreaded paper cut. Her books blend science, humour, and creativity, and include the Elements of Genius series, the acclaimed My Life Is a Zoo middle-grade trilogy, and award-winning picture books like Shark Lady and Pink Is for Blobfish. Jess lives in Mississauga, Ontario, where she loves hiking, nerdy documentaries, and writing books for curious and adventurous kids. Visit her online at www.jesskeating.com.

Doggone Magic! (Go Away, Unicorn #2)

By Emily Mullock

Join Alice and her whimsical best friend,
Unicorn, for their second all-new adventure.

Alice's dog Max is used to leading a quiet life. But that was before Unicorn came along. Now every day brings a new magical misadventure . . . and Max is feeling a little left out.

Until unexpectedly, the family's old dog starts learning a few new tricks. All of a sudden, Max is growing horns, his fur is turning pink and blue, and he's even hovering in midair!

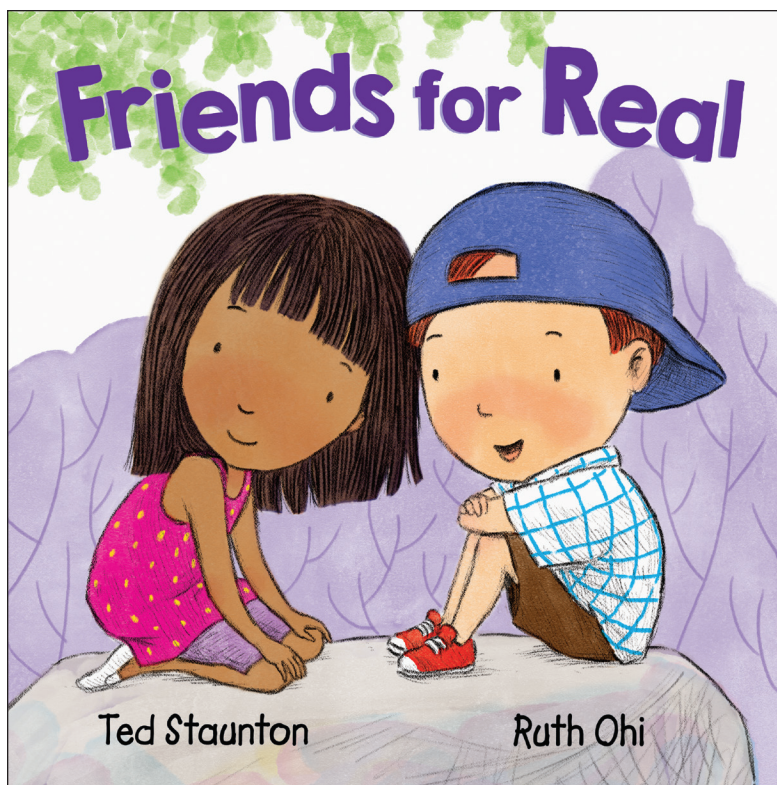

It's all fun and games . . . at first. But soon Max's magic starts getting out of control. Can Alice and Unicorn figure out what's really going on with that doggone dog?

Friends for Real

By Ted Staunton

Illustrated by Ruth Ohi

Emma searches for her lost favourite toy, and instead finds a true friend.

Emma is sneezy, so she has Squeezy, who's as real to her as a real pet. When Emma loses Squeezy, she tries to find another toy to replace her best-loved "pet." It's hard. No one else is exactly like Squeezy, and for Emma, Squeezy is perfect. But instead of finding Squeezy, Emma ends up discovering an unexpected friendship, and that two imaginations are better than one.

This touching, smart story of lost-and-found treasures is a great reminder that things don't always go as planned, but they can turn out better than expected. When Emma makes a friend in Frank, she finds what she'd been missing all along!

In an equally perfect pairing, Ruth Ohi's delightful art effortlessly brings through the layers in Ted Staunton's nuanced text, bringing together the talents of two of Canada's best-loved storytellers for kids.

Ted Staunton is the award-winning author of over forty books for young people, including Bounced, and What Blows Up in The Almost Epic Squad series. A busy and popular presenter at schools across Canada, Ted also teaches writing at George Brown College in Toronto, and is a roots/blues musician in whatever time is left over. Visit him online at www.tedstauntonbooks.com.

Ruth Ohi has illustrated more than sixty children's books — several of which she has also written, including the Fox and Squirrel series, Shh! My Brother's Napping, Scribble and No Help Wanted! Her books have been nominated for many prestigious awards, including the Marilyn Baillie Picture Book Award, Amelia Frances Howard-Gibbon Award, Mr. Christie's Book Award, Chocolate Lily Award, Shining Willow Award, Blue Spruce Award and the Governor General's Award. She lives with her family in Toronto, Ontario. Visit her online at www.RuthOhi.com.

The Grumpy Pirate

By Corinne Demas and Artemis Roehrig

Illustrated by Ashlyn Anstee

Gus the Pirate is always grumpy, but can the wise Pirate Queen convince him to change his ways?

There is one grumpy pirate.

They call him Grumpy Gus.

He grunts and gripes and grouses, and always makes a fuss.

Gus the Pirate complains about everything — ARRRRRGH! Gus grumbles about his lumpy bed and his itchy clothes. He complains about the yucky food and doing his chores on the pirate ship. Even sailing toward buried treasure can't make Gus happy! Finally, the other pirates have had enough! They ask the Pirate Queen to help.

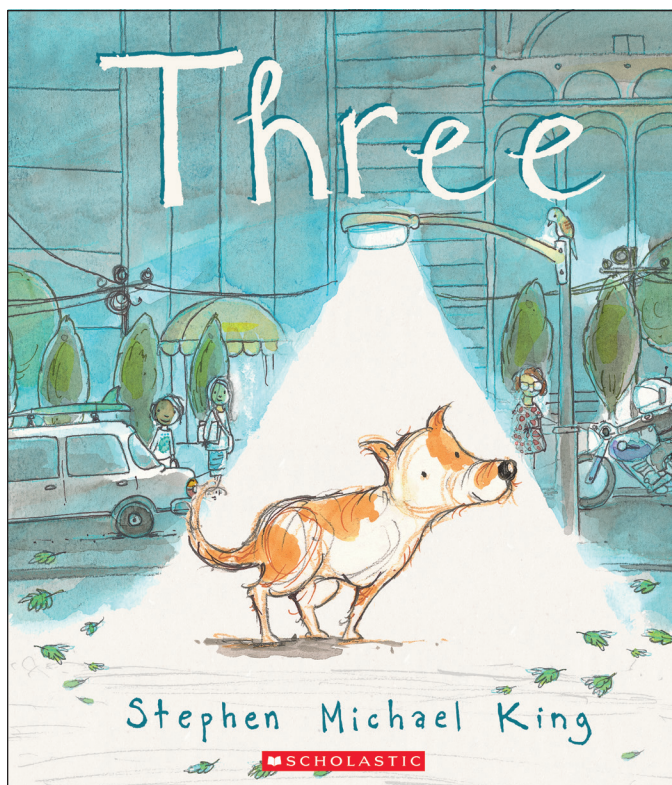

So the Pirate Queen gives Grumpy Gus a pet parrot — but the parrot is grumpy, too! After Gus spends the day with a parrot who's just as grumbly and grouchy as he is, Gus realizes his bad attitude might be a little hard to deal with. Can Gus turn his frown upside down before the other pirates make him walk the plank?

All kids can relate to feeling grumpy like Gus, and this swashbuckling pirate adventure teaches kids the importance of trying to have a positive attitude!

Corinne Demas is the award-winning author of numerous books for children and adults, including Pirates Go to School, illustrated by John Manders, and Always in Trouble, illustrated by Noah Z. Jones. Corinne is a professor of English at Mount Holyoke College. She divides her time between Western Massachusetts and Cape Cod. Visit her online at www.corinnedemas.com.

Artemis Roehrig lives in Western Massachusetts and loves to share stories with her two children. This is her first book.

Ashlyn Anstee grew up in Vancouver, studied in Toronto, and then settled in Los Angeles. A graduate of Sheridan College, she is an author, illustrator, writer, and storyboard artist. She's the author and illustrator of several books. Visit her online at www.ashlyna.com.

Three

By Stephen Michael King

A heartwarming story about how perfect it is to be you!

One, two, three . . .

One, two, three . . .

Every day was a skip and a hop for Three. He was happy to walk from here to there, wherever his nose led, or wherever his legs took him . . . all the way to new friends.

Three is a homeless three-legged dog who loves life and is thankful for his three legs. When Three meets a loving family they become a perfect four.

The soft watercolour illustrations are full of humour as Three muses on how many legs other objects and people have.

This is a beautiful, happy story about finding your place in the world, with themes of accepting differences, gratitude and belonging. A guaranteed feel-good read of the year!

Stephen Michael King is an Australian author and illustrator. His first picture book, The Man Who Loved Boxes, skyrocketed to popularity, winning the Family Award for Children's Books in 1996. It was also short-listed in the Crichton Award for Children's Book Illustration and has been sold around the world. He has since created a number of award-winning picture books for children.

By Heather M. O'Connor

Illustrated by Claudia Dávila

Every child has a voice — if we take the time to listen.

In this appealing, energetic picture book, two kids with different challenges and strengths find they are just what the other needs to navigate classroom life.

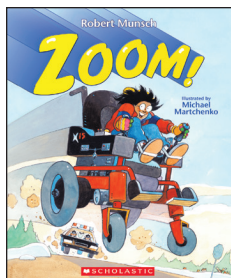

Tyson does everything fast — so fast he often disrupts the class. His teacher is always saying, "Too fast, Tyson!" And often he ends up playing all alone.

Suze, the new girl, is nonverbal with special needs. Sometimes her classmates don't know what those needs are.

But Tyson understands. Taking the time to interpret her cues, Tyson forms a friendship with Suze, and teaches his classmates what it means to listen and understand others.

Claudia Dávila's bright, energetic art captures the joy of moving at your own speed and connecting with a new friend.

Brady and Brady and the Ballpark Bark (Brady Brady)

By Mary Shaw

Illustrated by Chuck Temple

Batter up! It's baseball season and Brady Brady is ready to hit it out of the park!

Brady Brady can't wait hit the baseball diamond — and neither can Brady's dog, Hatrick! The only problem is Hatrick's is a little too enthusiastic about baseball practice, and won't stop trying to catch all of the balls. When Brady is forced to take Hatrick back home, batting practice improves for the team . . . all except for Tree, who just can't seem to connect.

With the season opener only days away, Brady and the Mudbugs rally around their friend Tree to help him practise, only to discover that they have a secret batting weapon after all — and it's Hatrick!

The Brady Brady series is much-loved by teachers and coaches for the engaging character education lessons they provide. In Ballpark Bark there is a particular focus on friendship, teamwork and perseverance.

Mary Shaw knows a thing or two about sports — her husband is former professional hockey player, now turned coach, Brad Shaw. Mary and her family have lived in Waterloo, Italy, Hartford, Ottawa, Detroit, Cincinnati, Tampa, and St. Louis. They call Kanata, Ontario home.

Chuck Temple began his career at the age of 18 when his first comic strip, Bernie on the Beat, went into syndication. He studied at both the University of Guelph and the Ontario College of Art, and cites Bill Watterson, creator of Calvin and Hobbes, as his favourite cartoonist. He also enjoys coaching and playing hockey. He lives in Kitchener, Ontario.

Sparks! Double Dog Dare (Sparks! #2)

By Ian Boothby

Illustrated by Nina Matsumoto

Sparks is in for trouble when he starts seeing double!

Who's a good dog?!

Charlie and August, the two cats that control the mechanical superhero dog Sparks, are keeping the city safe. But when a second, evil Sparks shows up and starts causing trouble around town, everybody blames the real Sparks. Determined to prove that Sparks is still the hero everyone can count on, Charlie and August set out to uncover the shocking truth about who is responsible for all the chaos.

Level 13: A Slacker Novel

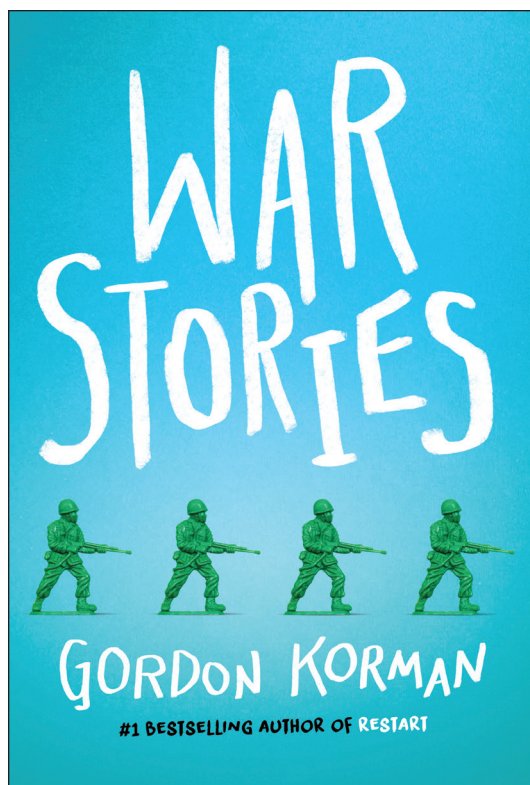

By Gordon Korman

A hilarious story about an underachiever who learns to go above and beyond.

Cameron Boxer, king of the slackers, has found something worth his time. By playing video games online in front of an audience he can find both fame AND fortune — especially with Elvis (a beaver who seems to love video games as much as Cam) at his side.

The only problem? Things keep getting in Cam's way. Like school. And the club he accidentally started. And the misguided people in his life who don't think beavers should be playing video games.

It's going to take some trickery, some close calls, and a fierce devotion to slacking in order for Cam to get to his goal — conquering the game's infamous Level 13. But if any slacker can do it, Cam can.

War Stories

By Gordon Korman

A story of telling truth from lies — and finding out what being a hero really means.

There are two things Trevor loves more than anything else: war-based video games and his great-grandfather Jacob, who is a true-blue, bona fide war hero. At the height of the war, Jacob helped liberate a small French village, and was given a hero's welcome upon his return to America.

Now, decades later, Jacob wants to retrace the steps he took during the war — from training to invasion to the village he is said to have saved. Trevor thinks this is the coolest idea ever. But as they get to the village, Trevor discovers there's more to the story than what he's heard his whole life, causing him to wonder about his great-grandfather's heroism, the truth about the battle he fought, and the importance of genuine valour.

GORDON KORMAN wrote his first novel, This Can't Be Happening at Macdonald Hall!, when he was only 12 years old. To date, he has written over 80 middle-grade and YA novels, including the Swindle series, Slacker, Restart, Ungifted and Supergifted, Notorious and The Unteachables. Gordon was born in Montreal, Quebec, grew up in Thornhill, Ontario, and now lives with his family in Great Neck, New York. Visit him online at www.gordonkorman.com.

Nikki Tesla and the Ferret-Proof Death Ray (Elements of Genius #1)

By Jess Keating

Illustrated by Lissy Marlin

"Let the official record show that I, Nikki Tesla, did not intend to destroy the world."

There are only so many times a kid can invent an instrument of global destruction without getting grounded. So when Nikki's death ray accidentally blows up her bedroom (if you can call a pet ferret with an itchy trigger finger an accident), she's sent to the only place that can handle her. Genius Academy is a school for the world's greatest minds. Leo da Vinci? Charlotte Darwin? Bert Einstein? All extraordinary. Yet even among her fellow prodigies, Nikki feels like an outsider thanks to a terrible secret she can't let anyone discover. Ever.

But when her death ray is stolen, Nikki must stop worrying about fitting in and learn to play nice with her new classmates. Because it doesn't take a genius to track a thief around the world, outwit the authorities, and keep a french-fry-fanatic ferret happy. It takes all of them.

Praise for Nikki Tesla and the Ferret-Proof Death Ray (Elements of Genius #1)

★ "Full STEAM ahead on a series debut equally charged with personal issues and science in (dramatic) action."

Nikki Tesla and the Traitors of the Lost Spark (Elements of Genius #3)

By Jess Keating

Illustrated by Lissy Marlin

Genius Academy is under attack, and it's up to the team to mastermind a solution!

When a routine operation goes horribly wrong, Nikki Tesla and the team take the blame for an international incident of epic proportions, and the school is shut down indefinitely. A little creative "research" tells them someone is planning biological warfare on a grand scale. But to get to the truth and clear their name, Nikki will have to find a miraculous antidote that can stop a criminal mastermind from blowing up the whole world.

The Big Shrink (Upside-Down Magic #6)

By Sarah Mlynowski, Lauren
Myracle and Emily Jenkins

Get ready for more magical hijinks in this hilarious series!

Marigold Ramos can magically make things small — sometimes very, very small. The only problem? She can't figure out how to make them big again.

Maybe a new tutor can help Marigold manage her magic. And maybe her magic will come in handy as she and her friends in the Upside-Down Magic class band together to protest a new rule made by their principal, a super unfair rule that bans them from bringing their amazing new toy dragons to school.

When Marigold starts shrinking her friends and the class bunny, it's a humongous problem! It's time for Marigold and her friends to figure out how they can make a big statement . . . without disappearing entirely!

Readers choose their own path as they dodge obstacles like giant sea monsters, double-crossing villains, hungry great white sharks... and maybe even a Canadian Bermuda Triangle!

What starts as a boring tour boat experience on the east coast of Canada quickly turns into chaos. It seems your parents have a very valuable map to the locations of some very important objects, and a group of criminal masterminds will stop at nothing to get their hands on it.

You've somehow made it off the boat with the map, but then do you suit up for a dive, swim to a nearby island or hitch a ride on a suspicious-looking speedboat? Can you find the treasure in time? And even if you do, will you be able to avoid booby traps, criminals hot on your trail and mutant creatures standing guard?

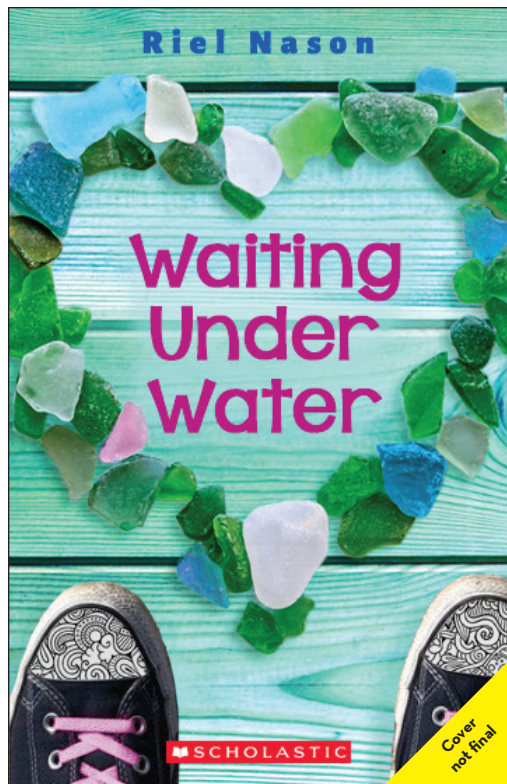

You've got 30 minutes to get to the treasure, stop the criminal masterminds, and save your parents... or die trying!

Praise for Canadian Survival (Countdown to Danger)

"Every scenario is action-packed and the pace is breathtaking . . . Canadian Survival is an especially good choice for reluctant readers, even those ages 12 to 14."

Waiting Under Water

By Riel Nason

A beautiful celebration of small town life, friendship, and opening up to change!

Hope's world is shaken when her parents announce that they're leaving their small New Brunswick town and moving to Toronto for her father's job.

Hope's anxiety, manageable before that point, skyrockets as she fears making new friends and leaving her beloved ocean, and the sea glass that she has been carefully nurturing for years. At least there's a tremendous diversion for her final summer — her village of St. David's is one of five entrants in a nationwide TV contest that celebrates "Canada's Tiniest Treasures."

In the countdown to the summer's end — and the move date — Hope and her best friend, Willa, dedicate themselves to the St. David's campaign, celebrating what is unique about small-town life, and their friendship.

Riel Nason is a Canadian novelist and textile artist. Her acclaimed debut novel, The Town That Drowned, won the 2012 Commonwealth Book Prize for Canada and Europe, and the 2012 Margaret and John Savage First Book Award. It was also shortlisted for several other literary awards as well as longlisted for the 2013 International IMPAC Dublin Literary Award. Her second novel, All The Things We Leave Behind, was published in September, 2016. Riel's original quilts have been exhibited across Canada including being shown twice at Quilt Canada (the National Juried Show). Nason grew up in Hawkshaw, NB, and now lives in Quispamsis, NB, with her husband, son, daughter and cats.

The Candle and the Flame

By Nafiza Azad

Azad's YA fantasy is set in a city along the Silk Road that is a refuge for those of all faiths.

Fatima lives in the city of Noor, a thriving stop along the Silk Road. There, the music of myriad languages fills the air, and people of all faiths weave their lives together. However, the city bears scars of its recent past, when the chaotic tribe of Shayateen djinn slaughtered its entire population — except for Fatima and two other humans. Now ruled by a new maharajah, Noor is protected from the Shayateen by the Ifrit, djinn of order and reason, and by their commander, Zulfikar.

But when one of the most potent of the Ifrit dies, Fatima is changed in ways she cannot fathom, ways that scare even those who love her. Oud in hand, Fatima is drawn into the intrigues of the maharajah and his sister, the affairs of Zulfikar and the djinn, and the dangers of a magical battlefield.

Nafiza Azad weaves an immersive tale of magic and the importance of names; fiercely independent women; and perhaps most importantly, the work for harmony within a city of a thousand cultures and cadences.

Praise for The Candle and the Flame:

★ "A must-read for lovers of fantasy." — Kirkus Reviews, starred review

"Azad's splendid debut is an ode to cultural harmony that features exciting magic, an emotionally complex cast, and a touching romance." — Booklist

"Fiery magic, sizzling romance, and a city so achingly hopeful and real that you can almost taste it on every page. I can't wait to return to Noor!" — Rachel Hartman, New York Times bestselling author of the Seraphina books Nafiza Azad was born in Fiji and spent the first seventeen years of her life as a self-styled Pacific Islander. Now she identifies as an Indo-Fijian Muslim Canadian, which means she is often navigating multiple identities. Nafiza has a love for languages and currently speaks four. She holds a Master of Arts degree in Children's Literature from the University of British Columbia and co-runs The Book Wars (thebookwars.ca), a website dedicated to all things children's literature. Nafiza currently lives in Surrey, British Columbia, with her family.

The Love and Lies of Rukhsana Ali

By Sabina Khan

Fight for love. Fight for family. Fight for yourself.

Seventeen-year-old Rukhsana Ali has always been fascinated by the universe around her and the laws of physics that keep everything in order. But her life at home isn't so absolute.

Unable to come out to her conservative Muslim parents, she keeps that part of her identity hidden. And that means keeping her girlfriend, Ariana, a secret from them too. Luckily, only a few more months stand between her carefully monitored life at home and a fresh start at Caltech in the fall. But when Rukhsana's mom catches her and Ariana together, her future begins to collapse around her.

Devastated and confused, Rukhsana's parents whisk her off to stay with their extended family in Bangladesh, where, along with the loving arms of her grandmother and cousins, she is met with a world of arranged marriages, religious tradition, and intolerance. Fortunately, Rukhsana finds allies along the way and, through reading her grandmother's old diary, finds the courage to take control of her future and fight for her love.

"An intersectional, diverse coming-of-age story that will break your heart in the best way" (Bustle), The Love and Lies of Rukhsana Ali provides a timely and achingly honest portrait of what it's like to grow up feeling unwelcome in your own culture — and proves that love, above all else, has the power to change the world.

Praise for The Love and Lies of Rukhsana Ali:

Nominee, OLA White Pine Award, Fiction, 2019

"Above all, Khan shows how important it is for queer youth of colour not to lose the cultural belonging that is as key as sexual identity to their senses of selves." — Quill & Quire

★ "With an up-close depiction of the intersection of the LGBTQIA+ community with Bengali culture, this hard-hitting and hopeful story is a must-purchase for any YA collection." — School Library Journal, starred review

"[The Love and Lies of Rukhsana Ali] takes LGBTQ fiction to another level and will help open readers' eyes to the realities that many face in these changing times." — Shelf Awareness

The War Below

By Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch

This companion novel to Skrypuch's Making Bombs for Hitler follows a boy who joins the underground Ukrainian resistance in the fight against Hitler.

This book was previously published in paperback under the title Underground Soldier.

The Nazis took Luka from his home in Ukraine and forced him into a labor camp. Now, Luka has smuggled himself out — even though he left behind his dearest friend, Lida. Someday, he vows, he'll find her again.

But first, he must survive.

Racing through the woods and mountains, Luka evades capture by both Nazis and Soviet agents. Though he finds some allies, he never knows who to trust. As Luka makes difficult choices in order to survive, desperate rescues and guerilla raids put him in the line of fire. Can he persevere long enough to find Lida again or make it back home where his father must be waiting for him?

Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch delivers another action-packed story, inspired by true events, of daring quests and the crucial decisions we make in the face of war.

Praise for The War Below:

"The subject matter is powerful and grows occasionally quite intense. A page-turning window into a complex piece of World War II history." — Kirkus Reviews

"This story, full of numerous acts of compassion and valor, sheds welcome light on a less familiar battleground of World War II." — Publisher's Weekly

Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch is the author of more than a dozen books, including Dear Canada: Prisoners in the Promised Land, Stolen Child, Making Bombs for Hitler, and Don't Tell the Enemy. She has won many awards for her work and is one of Canada's most respected authors of historical fiction for young people. Much of Marsha's writing focuses on stories from her Ukrainian heritage, and she has been presented with the Order of Princess Olha by the President of Ukraine and named a Canadian Ukrainian Woman of Distinction. Haunted Canada 10: More Scary True Stories (Haunted Canada)

By Joel A. Sutherland

The tenth book in the bestselling series of hauntingly true Canadian stories — back, and scarier than ever!

Even more chilling ghost stories from all across our spooky land. Moody black-and-white illustrations and photographs enhance the hauntingly eerie read.

In Victoria, British Columbia, the spirit of a killer haunts Fan Tan Alley. The ghost of a little girl with long dark hair inhabits a hockey arena in Canmore, Alberta. Mysterious knocking at the door of a home in Halifax, Nova Scotia, signals the start of a series of strange happenings.

With its first volume published in 2002, Haunted Canada is now an award-winning ten-book series with over half a million copies in print. Kids can't get enough of these spooky tales that allow them to learn about the eeriest corners of our country.

Praise for Joel A. Sutherland:

Winner, OLA Silver Birch Award, Non-Fiction, 2017 (Haunted Canada 6)

Winner, OLA Silver Birch Award, Non-Fiction, 2016 (Haunted Canada 5)

It Seemed Like a Good Idea... Canadian Feats, Facts and Flubs

By Ted Staunton, Will Staunton

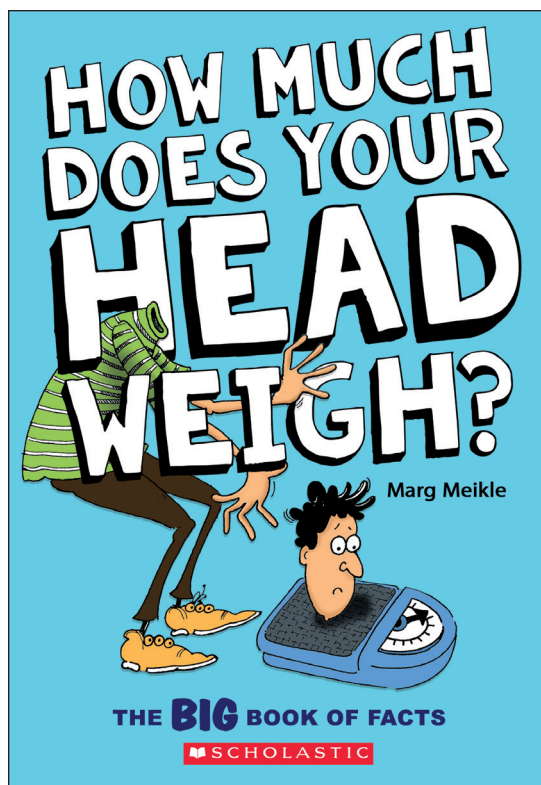

A hilarious collection of misfires, creative solutions, dumb luck — and startling victories!

Where else but Canada would you find a town that turns its main street into a giant tubing run? Or witness a Mission Impossible-style heist where a thief drops down through the ceiling and makes off with over $120,000 worth of hockey sticks? Not to mention the slippery — or was that sticky? — bandits who stole 20,000 litres of maple syrup . . .

It all makes perfect sense, really. Living in Canada means responding uniquely to a unique environment. And it's our (sometimes highly questionable) ideas that make us who we are. In an engaging, hilarious and always fascinating exploration of geography, history, wildlife, science, culture, food, art . . . and giant roadside attractions — this is our nation at its most jaw-droppingly unusual and innovative.

Ted Staunton and Will Staunton are a father-and-son team who have collaborated on many projects, including playing in bands, writing, and doing the dishes. This is their second book together. Will Staunton spends a huge amount of time driving back and forth across Canada playing music with his rock/bluegrass band, Union Duke. Ted Staunton has written many books for young people, including What Blows Up in The Almost Epic Squad series. Visit Ted online at www.tedstauntonbooks.com.

How Much Does Your Head Weigh?: The Big Book of Facts

By Marg Meikle

Illustrated by Tina Holdcroft

An updated reissue of the bestselling title, with over 300 amazing facts.

This funny, informative bind-up of three successful books, ALL of them Silver Birch Award Winners or finalists — You Asked for It!, Funny You Should Ask and Ask Me Anything! — is now reissued with updated stats and information and a bright new cover.

Why is 13 unlucky? Why don't tattoos come off? Do twins have the same DNA? Why is it called a funny bone? What did we use before toilet paper? Do animals dream? Why can't you tickle yourself?

Includes more than 300 wacky but informative snippets that kids are dying to know about, illustrated with 142 equally wacky illustrations by Tina Holdcroft. Much of the content in this book came from actual questions from kids.

Marg Meikle's knack for finding answers led to a widely appreciated stint on CBC Radio as "The Answer Lady." She further demonstrated her skills by writing several books of non-fiction, including three for children: You Asked for It!, Funny You Should Ask and Ask Me Anything! For her efforts, she was awarded both the Silver Birch and Red Cedar Awards. Marg was diagnosed with Parkinson's disease as a young mother, at the age of 41. In 2001 she held the first Porridge for Parkinson's Breakfast in Vancouver. Through Marg's efforts, this event mushroomed and inspired similar breakfast events across the country, which continue to this day. By the time of her death of complications from the disease in December, 2013, at the age of 57, the event and matching donations had raised $1.6 million for Parkinson's research.
