De vrais amis

A Friend Instead

When Emma loses Dino, her beloved stuffed animal, she must look for a replacement pet. To Emma, Dino was perfect. He hid her broccoli for her and liked the same things as Emma. She begins to consider other pets. Emma brings home a moose, but he is too quiet. She finds a seal, but he is too slippery for hugs. Nobody is just-right like Dino. In her search for a new best friend, Emma meets Frank, a boy who is a bit like her but also different. Will Emma realize that they don't need to be perfectly matched to get along?

This story of friendship celebrates childrens' deep and expansive imaginary worlds and the wonder of finding companionship.

TED STAUNTON is the author of over forty books for young people, a contributor to the popular Seven series, and a roots/blues musician. A busy and popular presenter at schools, libraries and conferences across Canada, Ted also teaches writing at George Brown College in Toronto. When not being bookish, he's often playing music with the Maple Leaf Champions Jug Band.

RUTH OHI has illustrated more than fifty children's books — some of which she has also written, including Rikki et Rouquin, Barbouille and Chut! Mon frère fait dodo! Her books have sold around the world in different languages and have been nominated for many prestigious awards, including the Marilyn Baillie Picture Book Award and the Amelia Frances Howard-Gibbon Award. She lives with her family in Toronto.

Un ours pour déjeuner! / Makwa kidji kijebà wìsinìyàn

Bear for Breakfast / Makwa kidji kijebà wìsinìyàn

It's breakfast time and Donovan knows exactly what he wants this morning! Not eggs, not pancakes, not cereal. No, what he wants is BEAR, just like his grandfather used to eat for breakfast!

So Donovan sets off to bag a bear of his own, going on an adventurous hunt through the woods, where he stalks and is stalked by an ant, a squirrel, and a dog — but they are not bears, so he shoos them away!

When Donovan finally meets a real, big and growling bear, he quickly learns that sometimes breakfast tastes best when it doesn't have any teeth!

This dual language edition includes both the original French text and an Algonquin translation.

This story was inspired by Donovan, a first-grader in La Loche, Saskatchewan, a community in northern Saskatchewan that Robert Munsch visited in January, 1990. When Robert asked what the kids liked to eat, Donovan said that he liked to eat BEAR!

ROBERT MUNSCH is Canada's bestselling author of more than fifty picture books for young readers. His heartwarming and hilarious stories are beloved by children, parents, teachers, and booksellers alike. In 2009, he was inducted into Canada's Walk of Fame. He lives in Guelph, Ontario.

JAY ODJICK is an artist and writer from the Kitigan Zibi Anishinabeg Algonquin community, just outside of Maniwaki, Quebec. He has created comic books and produced the animated TV series Kagagi: The Raven, which airs in Canada, the US and Australia. He previously illustrated Robert Munsch's picture book Vilains maringouins!. He is thrilled to be able to join forces with Robert Munsch to bring stories about today's Indigenous kids to a broad audience.

One Monday, Lama finds more cake than any llama should ever eat. He chows down with gusto until he is so full of cake that he rips his pants with such force that he also tears a seam in the universe. A tongue-in-cheek story delivered with witty sincerity.

Baby-Sitters Petite sœur Baby-Sitters Little Sister

N° 1 - Karen et la sorcière

#1: Karen's Witch

In this spinoff of the wildly popular Club des Baby-Sitters series, the little sisters take centre stage!

Karen Brewer likes having two families. It means two Christmases, two sets of toys, and two houses. Living next door to her dad and stepmom is Mrs. Porter, alias Morbidda Destiny. Karen is convinced that Mrs. Porter is a witch. She has wild hair, witchy clothes, a black cat, and she spends all her time in her herb garden. When Karen believes that her spooky neighbour is preparing for a coven meeting, how will she get the others to believe her?

An energetically illustrated graphic novel for young readers about making assumptions and celebrating differences.

ANN MARTIN'S Baby-Sitters Club is one of the most popular series in the history of publishing. She is also the author of Belle Teal, A Corner of the Universe (a Newbery Honor book), Here Today, and A Dog's Life. She lives in New York.

KATY FARINA is a comics artist and illustrator based in Los Angeles. She is currently a background painter for She-Ra and the Princesses of Power at DreamWorks TV. In the past, she has done work for BOOM! Studios, Oni Press, and Z2 Comics.

Winn-Dixie

Because of Winn-Dixie

When 10-year-old India Opal Buloni moves to Naomi, Florida with her father, she doesn't know what to expect — least of all, that she'll adopt Winn-Dixie, a dog she names after the supermarket where they met.

Right away, Opal knows she can tell Winn-Dixie anything — like that lately, she's been thinking a lot about her mother, who left when Opal was three. And that her father, the preacher, won't talk about her mother at all. And that she's lonely. But with such an unusually friendly dog at her side, Opal soon finds herself making more than a few unusual friends. And ultimately, Opal and her father realize — with a little help from Winn-Dixie, of course — that while they've both tasted a bit of melancholy in their lives, they still have a whole lot to be thankful for.

Winn-Dixie has been capturing the hearts of readers and critics for two decades. It was recognized as a Newbery Honor book and won the Parents' Choice Gold Award.

KATE DiCAMILLO is the author of many beloved books for young readers, including La quête de Despereaux, which received a Newbery Medal; Winn-Dixie, which received a Newbery Honor; L'odyssée miraculeuse d'Édouard Toulaine, winner of a Boston Globe - Horn Book Award; L'éléphant du magicien and the best-selling Mercy Watson series. Kate lives in Minneapolis.

A CELEBRATION OF THE IMAGINATION

Si je n'étais pas Anne...

If I Couldn't Be Anne

Anne daydreams of who she would be if she could not be Anne, Anne with an e. Perhaps she would be a dryad, or the dancing wind. Or perhaps she would rather be something more marvelous still: herself, just as she is.

Kallie George masterfully captures Anne's whimsical voice and charming flights of fancy. Paired with Geneviève Godbout's soft and dreamlike coloured pencil illustrations, this story of imagination and self-acceptance will introduce a new generation of readers to Anne of Green Gables.

KALLIE GEORGE is an author, editor, and speaker living in Vancouver, BC. When she's not writing or editing, she's teaching creative writing workshops.

GENEVIÈVE GODBOUT lives in Montreal where she works as a children's book and fashion illustrator. She studied traditional animation in Montreal and at the prestigious Gobelins school in Paris. She is the illustrator of Quand le père Noël était petit..., winner of the 2017 Prix jeunesse des libraires du Québec.

Mercy Watson à la rescousse

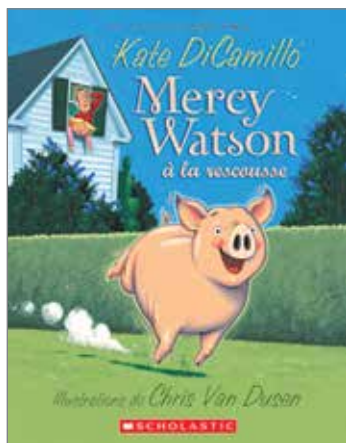

Mercy Watson to the Rescue

To Mr. and Mrs. Watson, Mercy is not just a pig — she's a porcine wonder. And to the good-natured Mercy, the Watsons are an excellent source of buttered toast, not to mention that buttery-toasty feeling she gets when she snuggles into bed with them. This is not, however, so good for the Watsons' bed. BOOM! CRACK!

Mercy Watson en balade

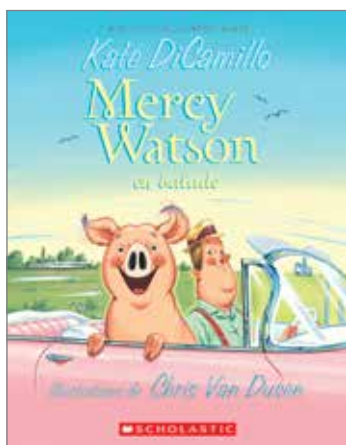

Mercy Watson Goes for a Ride

Mr. and Mrs. Watson's porcine wonder, Mercy, loves nothing more than a ride in the car. It takes a fair amount of nudging and bribing to get the portly pig out of the driver's seat, but once the convertible is on the road, Mercy loves the feel of the wind tickling her ears and the sun on her snout. One day, the Watsons' motoring ritual takes an unexpected turn when their elderly neighbor, Baby Lincoln, pops up in the backseat in hopes of some folly and adventure. In the chaos that ensues, an exuberant Mercy ends up behind the wheel!

Tales of the Great Beasts

Dive, run, and soar through this exhilarating special edition in the New York Times bestselling series, with a story by Les quatre Élus author, Brandon Mull. In the world of Erdas, there's a tale of four noble animals who sacrificed everything to protect their homes from the ambitions of a mad king.

Briggan the Wolf, Uraza the Leopard, Jhi the Panda, and Essix the Falcon; long before they were spirit animals, they were legends — Great Beasts, the most powerful beings to roam the wilds of Erdas.

Aided by a brave resistance of humans and animals, they gave their lives to protect the world from a threat more dangerous than any it had seen before: their own kind. Wise and cunning, gentle, and ruthless, these are tales of the true heroes and villains in the war that started it all.

L'Épouvantail

The Scarecrow

All the animals know not to mess with old Scarecrow. But when a small, scared crow falls from midair, Scarecrow does the strangest thing... Bestselling author Beth Ferry and the widely acclaimed Fan Brothers present this tender and affectionate tale that reminds us of the comforting power of friendship and the joy of helping others.

The Fan Brothers once again demonstrate their mastery of illustration with sweeping settings, a breathtaking and beautifully curated colour palette and charming, lifelike characters.

BETH FERRY reads and writes by the beach in New Jersey. She is the author of many picture books, including the New York Times bestseller Stick and Stone, illustrated by Tom Lichtenheld and Land Shark, illustrated by Ben Mantle.

TERRY FAN has formal art training from the Ontario College of Art and Design in Toronto. His work is a blend of traditional and contemporary techniques, using ink or graphite mixed with digital. He spends his days (and nights) creating magical paintings, portraits, and prints. Together with his brother Eric, he wrote and illustrated the critically-acclaimed picture book, Le jardinier de la nuit.

ERIC FAN is an artist and writer who lives in Toronto, Canada. He attended the Ontario College of Art and Design, where he studied illustration, sculpture, and film. He has a passion for vintage bikes, clockwork contraptions, and impossible dreams. His widely-praised debut picture book, Le jardinier de la nuit, was a collaboration with his brother Terry.

Pas moi

From beloved children's author Elise Gravel comes an ode to the perpetual question: Who made this mess? When their dad asks who left socks laying all over the place, Nico and his sister insist that it was "Not Me." Disbelievingly, their dad is sure they are not telling the truth, until he is introduced to Not Me, who in turn accuses Not True, who exposes the real sock bandit: Not Fair.

Monsters personifying a child's typical responses brilliantly addresses blaming others and excuse-making by focusing on the humour of the situation. Parents and caregivers will appreciate this highly relatable book just as much as children.

ELISE GRAVEL has won a Governor General Award for illustration, two Applied Arts Awards and a Grafika award. She was also shortlisted for Mr. Christie's Book Award and the Prix jeunesse des libraires du Québec. She recently received the Prix Droits et Libertés, de la personne et des droits de la jeunesse. She has written and illustrated over thirty books for children in both French and English. Elise lives in Montreal.

Roi de la maternelle

The King of Kindergarten

Starting kindergarten is a big milestone, and the hero of this story is ready to make his mark! He's dressed himself, eaten a pile of pancakes, and can't wait to be part of a whole new kingdom of kids. The day will be jam-packed, but he's up to the challenge, taking new experiences in stride with his infectious enthusiasm! And afterward, he can't wait to tell his proud parents all about his achievements—and then wake up to start another day.

Newbery Honor-winning author Derrick Barnes's empowering story will give new kindergarteners a reassuring confidence boost, and Vanessa Brantley-Newton's illustrations exude the joy and positivity of a new beginning.

DERRICK BARNES has written several critically acclaimed books for children, including The Making of Dr. Truelove and the Ruby and the Booker Boys series. Earning a multitude of awards, his picture book CROWN: An Ode To The Fresh Cut, is one of the most decorated picture books in the history of children's literature. Before becoming a published author, Derrick was the first African American staff writer at Hallmark Cards. Derrick lives in Charlotte, North Carolina, with his wife and four sons.

VANESSA BRANTLEY-NEWTON is a self-taught illustrator, doll maker, and crafter who studied fashion illustration at FIT and children's book illustration at the School of Visual Arts in New York. She is the author and illustrator of Let Freedom Sing and Don't Let Auntie Mabel Bless the Table and has illustrated numerous other children's books. Vanessa currently makes her nest in Charlotte, North Carolina, with her husband, daughter, and a very rambunctious cat named Stripes.

Owly

N° 1 - Le retour à la maison

#1: The Way Home

Owly just wants to lend a helping hand to his fellow woodland creatures, but they are all too afraid of him because he is an owl! Being mean and scary just isn't in his nature, but an owl is an owl, as far as everybody else is concerned. When Owly rescues Wormy from drowning in a puddle, his life starts to turn around. Wormy isn't scared of Owly; he is grateful to him for saving his life and what's more, he needs his help finding the way back home! As Owly's friendship with Wormy blossoms, so too do his relationships with other animals in the forest.

A tender graphic novel for young readers about preconceived notions, bucking stereotypes, and the healing power of friendship.

ANDY RUNTON is the creator of Owly, which has earned him multiple awards, including the Eisner Award for Best Publication for a Younger Audience. The Owly books have been praised for their "charm, wisdom, and warmth" by Booklist, and WIRED.com said they are "one of the best comics for kids around. Period." NEW SERIES!

Les maths autour de nousMath Around Us

Math goes beyond the classroom in this series of educational books. Readers are introduced to the practical applications of math in everyday life. With high-quality photographs and simple explanatory text and diagrams, Math Around Us encourages children to observe the world and make connections to what they are learning in school.

Les motifs au musée

Patterns at the Museum

Patterns can be found everywhere at the museum; in a mosaic, on a suit of armour, and even in a dinosaur skeleton. The photographs and explanatory diagrams in this book will help readers understand what constitutes a pattern, the different ways it can be present, and how to identify one out in the world. A picture glossary at the end of the book defines museum terms for young readers, incorporating general knowledge learning into a math-centric text.

From design elements to foods we eat, the kitchen is filled with basic shapes if you know where to look! Les formes dans la cuisine demonstrates how squares, circles, and triangles can be spotted in a place we spend time in every day, making geometry a part of readers' routines. The picture glossary highlights vocabulary words to help children identify objects in the home.
